A Note from Rick: I really don't have much to say about the beef market except that it is really getting ugly. I still don't see any relief in sight. On the dairy side, we had a great sale. The market was a little softer than it was in August at our last sale, but the really good heifers sold well all day long. Once again, there is a major price difference between number one and number two heifers. In a nutshell, be sure you are feeding the good ones and feeding them right. Thanks again to all the buyers and sellers that continue to support TLA. We appreciate your business!
