He loves me, he loves me not

Building a bond with your dog

Does your dog follow you around the house? Does he wait by the window and watch for you when you leave the house? Does your dog do the happy dance when you come home? Does your dog (usually) come when called? These are just a few of the many indicators that you probably have an excellent bond with your dog.

What exactly is bonding and why is it important? Click here to continue reading.

Weimaraner

Did you know that the Weimaraner's sense of smell and their reputation as skilled pointers led them to being chosen to help find hidden missile parts during the Cold War?

Did you also know that:

- The Weimaraner is nicknamed the Grey Ghost because they often resemble a ghost out in the fields due to their coat color?
- The Weimaraner is born with blue eyes that turn yellow as they mature?

Quote of the Month

"The bond with a true dog is as lasting as the ties on this earth will ever be."

Konrad Lorenz
