The King FINALLY Gets it!

By Paul Dallgas-Frey

... continued from last time

A year went by.

And nothing happened.

But then one day, King Nebuchadnezzar was walking along a balcony of his royal palace in the golden light of the early evening. He looked out over the great city of Babylon and all that he possessed. "What a great and mighty king I am!" he said.

Before the words were even out of his mouth, a voice from heaven said, "King Nebuchadnezzar! Now is your power taken away from you!"

And in that moment, the great and mighty King Nebuchadnezzar became like an animal. He ran from the comfort of his palace and lived in the fields and forests.

Seven years went by.

King Nebuchadnezzar's hair grew as long as eagle feathers, and his fingernails like bird claws. He ate grass like a cow, and the rain fell on his head.

And then one day King Nebuchadnezzar looked up to the sky.

He admitted that God was king over all things. And immediately he came to his right mind again. He praised God, and said,

"Now I know that God is king over all things
in heaven and on earth!

He will rule forever,
and his kingdom will never end.

No one can stand in his way.
He is in control of all things, in heaven and on earth!"

King Nebuchadnezzar returned to his royal palace, and God gave his kingdom back to him, even greater than before.

Finally, King Nebuchadnezzar said,

"Now I, King Nebuchadnezzar, praise the Almighty God of heaven!
He can do whatever he pleases. All that he does is good and right!"
