TOPIC: The Inspection World - What's Really Involved?

SPEAKER: Billy Campbell of Billy Campbell Technical Services.

ABSTRACT: An in depth look at Coating & Linings inspection before, during and after projects. A view of coating evaluations good and bad. A show of pictures and videos of what it takes to get the job done.

BIOGRAPHY: Mr. Campbell is an 18-year member of NACE and holds his NACE Level III Coating Inspector certification and a NACE Cathodic Protection Level-1 certification. A proud member of this chapter since 2005. He is an owner and operator of Billy Campbell Technical Services or otherwise known as BCTS. He has worked in the water, wastewater, oil & gas, offshore platforms in the Gulf of Mexico and more! He started as a blaster/painter for 10 years working for CB&I. He then worked for a few inspection companies along the way before branching out on his own and has built an extraordinary portfolio of experience. Experiencing the Good and the Bad, Billy is going to share his diverse expertise and experiences. He's the recipient of the 2018 NACE Western Area Distinguished Service Award aka. Richard Stratfull award.
