- ❑ Fund free transportation to and from the facility if necessary for the participant.
- ❑ One salaried certified teacher will oversee multiple hourly paid certified teachers to tutor students in areas where they need academic assistance.
- ❑ Students served will be kindergarten to twelfth grade.

Athletics in Both Communities

- ❑ Write Community Service Block Grant in Lexington County.
- ❑ Fund free athletic training for all participants in the Make Your Mark program.
- ❑ One salaried highly qualified coach will oversee multiple hourly paid coaches to train athletes in a given sport.
- ❑ Players will be broken into 2 categories based on player/parent choice:

Competitive and Noncompetitive

- ❑ Competitive
  - ❑ These players will be tiered out according to age and ability.
  - ❑ They will train in the off season (seventh grade and above) of their sport and competitively apply that training during the summer via AAU teams coordinated by Make Your Mark.
  - ❑ K- 6 grade students will have the option to train year round in their sport and compete as well during the summer in AAU events coordinated by Make Your Mark
- ❑ Noncompetitive
  - ❑ These players will be tiered out according to age.
  - ❑ They will be mixed according to ability creating even teams.
  - ❑ Noncompetitive will be run like a recreational league and will be held in season when the numbers of the competitive tiers are lower.
