Adams County Fair Livestock Sale Committee Mission Statement

To foster a positive experience for the youth and community of the Columbia Basin through the educational experience of participation in the free enterprise system.

Teaching honesty, hard work, preparedness, compassion, marketing and a vision for the future.

ADVERTISING RESTRICTIONS

No person will be permitted to distribute advertising material upon the grounds, except from their place of business or exhibit space. The taking or posting of any advertisement, bills, etc., other than within the space occupied by exhibits is strictly prohibited. Anyone violating this rule is liable for a fine or expulsion from the grounds.

Begging, soliciting, singing, petition signing or public speaking are positively prohibited. The parking lot is included in these advertising restrictions.

POLICIES, RULES, AND REGULATIONS

Only residents of Adams, Franklin, Grant, Whitman, and Lincoln counties may exhibit at the Adams County Fair with the exception of exhibitors with breeding stock, which is open to all state residents.

All premium checks will be mailed to exhibitors.

Fairgrounds will open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 10:00 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, Friday at 11:00 p.m. The Fair will officially close at 12 p.m. on Saturday.

NO EXHIBITS TO BE REMOVED UNTIL SUNDAY, INCLUDING TACK OR DECORATIONS. ALL EXHIBITS MUST BE PICKED UP BETWEEN 8 AM AND 12 NOON ON SUNDAY.

Livestock gates will open at 6:00 a.m. on fair days for livestock exhibitors.

No Vehicles will be allowed on the fairgrounds after 9:00 a.m. or before 10:00 p.m. Garbage removal and supplies for concession stands and commercial booths will be completed before 9:00 a.m.

Parking on Fairgrounds:

All trucks and vehicles will be removed immediately following unloading of animals and equipment, to make room for other exhibitors unloading.

Trucks and cars will be parked only in designated areas, (See Campground Rules and Regulations.) This rule will be strictly enforced for the protection and safety of exhibitors, their exhibits and spectators at the fair and to allow for emergency vehicles.

Entry Times, Rules and Regulations

1. All livestock entries will be unloaded between the hours of 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Tuesday.
2. All building entries, including flowers, must be entered Tuesday between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. (4-H until 8 p.m.)
3. ALL exhibits in every department must remain in place until release time, 8 a.m. Sunday. Pick up before noon.
4. Livestock exhibitors must clean stalls, pens, or cages and be inspected by superintendents before release (Sunday).
5. Building exhibitors must first report to the Fair Office and pick up their pre-assigned exhibitor number before taking their exhibits to the Department Superintendents.
6. Livestock exhibitors are pre-registered, and will use the same number from their packets supplied at the back gate. This exhibitor number will be used in all departments.
7. All exhibits must be entered using the exhibitor numbers.
8. Adams County Fair will not be responsible for loss, damage, or injury of any persons, animal, or property while on the Fairgrounds or in connection with fair activities. The Fair Management will take every precaution within its power for the safe preservation of all stock, articles, exhibits, or displays.
9. Booths, commercial exhibits, and concessions must be arranged in advance with the Adams County Fair board.
10. Commercial Exhibitors must prepare and decorate their own booths and keep their area neat, clean, and safe. Booth rental must be paid in advance at the Fair Office. All materials for decorating must be fire resistant.
11. No smoking is allowed in any of the fair buildings.
12. The Superintendents reserve the right to interpret rules and misprints and settle controversies regarding the premium book. The process to be used is the Superintendent takes such interpretations to the Fair Board.

Department specific rules take precedence over General Rules.

13. Exhibits in Departments 12-30, must have been produced or completed in the last 12 months, except exhibits for display only.

14. All Swine 4-H and FFA livestock exhibitors will be required to provide a current Quality Assurance Program Certification.

15. No exhibits may be entered in more than one class. Special exhibit limits apply in some departments. Livestock exhibitors see rule #23 under Livestock Policies, Rules & Regulations.

16. All division premiums will be judged on the Danish System, except in Open Adult Classes of Beef, Dairy, Swine, Sheep, and Horses.

17. In order for an exhibit to qualify for a champion ribbon it must first receive a blue ribbon in its class.

18. The Youth Divisions are divided: 4-H Division, FFA-Division, and Open Youth-Division. 4-H Classes are open to regularly enrolled 4-H members in the club year with the appropriate projects. 4-H age groups, as of Oct. 1 last year are as follows: Cloverbuds, 5 to 7 years old; Junior, 8 to 10 years old; Intermediate, 11 to 13 years old; Senior, 14 to less than 19 years old. FFA classes are open to regularly enrolled FFA members. FFA Divisions are: FFAI, Freshman & Sophomore, FFAII, Jr. & Sr. Any youth under age 19 (as of Jan 1, this year) not meeting the previous criteria must enter open youth unless showing purebred livestock.

19. Any person knowingly violating any rules will forfeit premiums.

20. All minor exhibitors planning to stay overnight must be accompanied by an adult, 21 years of age or older, and must register with campground Superintendent and occupy area assigned.

21. Alcohol Lick Strips may be used on minors suspected of drinking on the fair grounds.

22. Premium checks will be mailed approximately 4 to 8 weeks after the fair. Checks will have a void date.

23. Dogs are ONLY allowed in the campgrounds during the fair, except seeing-eye dogs, K-9 dogs or for the Dog Obedience Class.

24. ALL dogs must be kept on a leash, if ANY dog is causing disturbances in the campgrounds, the owner will be asked to remove the animal or be asked to leave the fair grounds. (See rule #19 of the Campground Rules.)

25. Unruly behavior: The Fair Board reserves the right to remove any individual or group whose conduct or actions are not in the best interest of the fair goers and exhibitors

LIVESTOCK RULES, POLICIES & REGULATIONS

1. Exhibitors will be required to read and sign Show Ring Ethics code on the registration form. Exhibitors whose actions and conduct are abusive and threatening to other persons will be asked to remove their exhibit and leave the grounds. Any premiums and awards will be forfeited. An exhibitor and his/her animal(s) may be dismissed by the judge from any class if the exhibitor mistreats the animal(s). Fair management may dismiss an exhibitor and his/her animal(s) from participation at the entire show if the exhibitor mistreats their animal(s).

 11. The Fair Board reserves the right to reject or remove any unruly animal.
 12. All 4-H and FFA exhibitors must do their own fitting, clipping, cleanup, etc. and must enter fitting & showing contest in each department unless excused by the superintendent.
 13. For safety, no electric cords of any kind will be allowed in the swine barn. Clipping should be done at home or with a hand razor at the fair.
 14. Each exhibitor must own, take care of, and exhibit his/her own animals unless excused by the superintendent.
 15. HORSES AND RIDERS ARE NOT ALLOWED IN ANY AREA EXCEPT HORSE AREA, STALLS AND HORSE SHOW RING. ALL HORSES MUST BE LED; EXCEPT IN DESIGNATED AREAS. VIOLATORS WILL FORFEIT ALL PREMIUMS AND AWARDS
 16. The superintendents of the Livestock Judging Contest are responsible for setting up this contest and arranging for these animals to be in the show ring on time. An exhibitor must prepare his animals for use in the Livestock Judging Contest upon request of the superintendent or forfeit his premium money.
 17. Each exhibitor is required to keep his animals and pens or stall in a clean, presentable condition from arrival on Tuesday through Saturday to close of fair.
 18. Steers must be dehorned (healed and re-growth not to exceed 2 in.) or naturally polled. Horned heifers may be shown in fitting and showing classes only if their horns are weighted.
 19. No boars, bulls, rams, or stallions shall be used in 4-H & FFA Fitting & Showing classes. No bull over 8 months of age out of stall without nose tongs.
 20. All Market and Fit & Show lambs are to be shorn 45 days prior to the fair arrival date, or slick shorn within 7 days of fair arrival dates.
 21. 4-H and FFA Exhibitors with market animals be sure to read Market Sale Rules and Regulations!
 22. A special area has been set aside for trimming tables. Clipping chutes may be left between the barns during the fair, however, they must be arranged perpendicular to the beef barn. Hair clippings must be kept cleaned up.
 23. An exhibitor may have two entries per class unless stated differently in individual department rules of this book.
 24. 4-H, FFA, and Youth may enter unregistered breeding stock.
 25. Swine breeding stock must have ear tags removed prior to entry to fair. All Market swine will receive an ear tag when weighed in on Tuesday.
 26. Entries received after Sept. 1st will be accepted only as room permits.
 27. The Superintendent's Handbook addresses Livestock grievance procedure. Contact Superintendent for proper steps to be taken. Complaints to be reviewed by Ethics Committee can be started by paying a $100 deposit and submitting the complaint in writing with a signature to the department superintendent. Include your name, address, phone numbers and indicate if you are staying on the fairgrounds during the week. If a ruling is made in favor of the complainant the $100 will be refunded. If the ruling goes against the complainant there will be no refund.
 28. 4-H and FFA Horse exhibitors may not show Open with their 4-H or FFA animals. 4-H and FFA exhibitors MAY show Open provided that a second animal is shown under open rules.
 29. If exhibitor chooses to bring multiple animals within one species, they must designate one division either FFA or 4-H for the species. Exhibitors may not show both 4-H and FFA within one species.

LIVESTOCK HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

1. Individual health certificates on Washington animals are not required for entry into the fair.
2. All Out-of-State animals must comply with the state of Washington import regulations and have a health certificate or receive an exemption each year from the state veterinarian for exhibition at the fair only.
3. The following are minimum requirements for animals entered into the Adams County Fair from out of state:
 - A. Beef cattle may be entered without a test for brucellosis from the free states of Idaho and Oregon.
 - B. Llamas, alpacas, and dairy goats over 6 months old shall be blood tested for brucellosis and found negative within 30 days of entry to a fair.

4. Member must bring pedigree and production information with entry on first day of Fair.
5. All animals must meet state health requirements.
6. All sale heifers will be pregnancy checked at the fair by a D.V.M. hired by the Sale Committee and the fee deduction from the sale proceeds.
7. Animals with horns are NOT ALLOWED.
8. Registration paper and signed transfer slip must be turned in when weighed at Fair. Transfer fee to be paid by the seller.
9. Health and brand slip must be brought with animal.
10. All heifers shown in the Dairy Sale Class must be sold through the sale except for sickness verified by a certified veterinarian. Any exhibitor pulling an animal for any other reason after showing will be barred from future sales and premium monies forfeited.

11. A good durable halter must be left on sale heifers until penned for load out.
12. If a heifer calves at the Fair, the calf sells and goes with the cow.

4-H & FFA MARKET STOCK SALE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Proof of ownership for BEEF entries must be available to the superintendent and sales committee. IF animal is an "owner bred" animal, a statement certifying such signed by the student Ag teacher or 4-H instructor and parents will be accepted as Proof of Ownership.

2. The sale is open to 4-H Junior, 4-H Intermediate, 4-H Senior, & FFA members residing in Grant, Adams, or Franklin counties. Qualified, regularly enrolled 4-H and FFA members will be allowed to complete their projects one full year following high school graduation

3. There will be random checks for "proof of ownership" of market animals.

4. Each exhibitor may sell a single market animal in the department of his choice.

4b. If exhibitor is showing two market animals, regardless of species, the highest placing market animal is the animal which sells.

5. Animals observed without food and/or water for extended periods of time, exhibitor will forfeit all premium points and be pulled from sale line-up upon investigation by the ethics committee.

6. Animals must meet minimum grade standards as follows: Market Hogs U.S. No. 1 & U.S. No. 2 and weigh 230 to 300 lbs. (Zero tolerance). Market Lambs - Prime, Choice, or Good; and must weigh 110 to 165 lbs. Market steers - Prime, Choice, or Select; and weigh at least 1150 lbs. to 1550 lbs. Any animal not within the weight guidelines will not be allowed to be sold through the Livestock Sale.

7. A minimum of (3) three participants in each division, i.e. 4-H or FFA, will be required before a Grand Championship buckle is awarded unless determined otherwise by judge.

8. All other places in Market will receive a ribbon, plaque, or trophy.

9. Each exhibitor must show his or her own animal. An exhibitor must report to the livestock Superintendent to be excused in writing if he or she cannot show.

10. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Market animals must be sold at the Market Sale, except when both Grand and Reserve animals are owned by one exhibitor, then only the Grand Champion will sell in the Market Sale. Also, the desired destination of the second animal needs to be finalized on Thursday.

11. If an animal has previously gone through a fair market sale, it may not be shown or sold at this fair, during the same calendar year, (January 1 through December 31). An animal being sold in the Fur and Feathers Sale must not have gone through any other sale.

12. NO white ribbon animals will be sold through the market sale.

13. Market Sale time will be 12:00 p.m. Saturday. Any exhibitor not in sale line-up on time will be omitted from sale, unless excused by Superintendent!

14. Any carcass found to contain drugs or tranquilizers by the federal inspector at the slaughter plant will the responsibility of the exhibitor. Sale monies will be withheld from the exhibitor and returned to the buyer. Any discounts from the packers on any market carcass will be passed on to the exhibitor of that animal.

15. All animals will be floored by the packer.

16. Terms of the market sale are cash. Buyers must pay the sale secretary or arrange for payment before leaving the grounds.

17. There will be a 4% commission deducted from seller check at the time of payment. This includes participants in the Fur and Feathers Sale.

18. Immediately after his or her animal is sold the seller must obtain the sign showing buyer and seller from the Sale Committee and display it neatly above the animal's stall for the remainder of the fair.

19. The seller is responsible for the feeding and care of market sale animals until the official close of the fair Saturday.
20. Steers cannot be shown or sold unless halter broke and can be handled by the exhibitor.
21. A separate brand inspection slip for each steer must be in the possession of the Beef Superintendent before the animal can be transferred to the buyer.
22. No bulls, boars, rams, or cryptochids are allowed in the meat market classes or the market sale.

CAMPGROUND RULES

Camping Administrator — Val Watson (509) 677-3536, Becky Flint (509) 760-1997

1. The Fair does not guarantee water and electrical hook-ups. Spaces are limited to availability. Receipt of money does not guarantee a space.
2. Reservations, along with your camping fee, must be sent to the Fair Office no later than 08/16/13. No refunds will be given after 09/01/13. Incomplete forms will be returned. If you pay on line for a camp spot you must still print and complete the campground form and send it in. We still need to have your space requirements in order to assign a spot.
3. Camping spaces are reserved for exhibitors and their immediate family members, also, concessionaires, superintendents, and fair personnel. Priority will be given to large animal livestock exhibitors and those who need to be available at Fair time.
4. Curfew for all people staying on the grounds is midnight. Violators will be subject to expulsion from the grounds and forfeiture of premiums.
5. Camping permits with name of owner must be displayed for easy identification.
6. Small tents will be allowed if they can fit with your other accommodations. Otherwise, two spaces must be reserved.
7. Camping vehicles must utilize the assigned marked off space for the duration of the fair. All cars must be detached from trailers and parked outside of camp areas.
8. Absolutely no vehicles will be allowed on the grounds at any time during the fair. This includes the horse area. Vehicles found will be towed at the owner's expense.
9. Lanes of 10 feet between parked camper/trailers must remain open at all times for emergency access and fire protection vehicles. Vehicles parked in these areas will be towed away at owner's expense. No dogs allowed on the grounds at any time. Failure to remove your dog could result in loss of camping space. ABSOLUTELY, NO DOGS IN THE HORSE AREA AT ANY TIME.
10. Any camper/trailer without qualified adult supervision will be excluded from the grounds. List names of campers on registration form.
11. Livestock trucks and horse trailers shall be parked in the south parking lot next to the back gate. No exceptions! Do not park east of the pig barns, you will be towed at your expense or fined.
12. A vehicle pass allows parking in designated areas ONLY, not in campground or other undesignated areas.
13. No abusive drugs will be allowed on the grounds at any time. Alcohol Lick Strips may be used on minors suspected of drinking on the fairgrounds and rule to eviction and/or turned over to authorities.
14. Anyone not abiding by campground rules will be expelled from the fair with forfeiture of all premium monies and sales money.

The fair assumes no responsibility for damage or injuries to campers. No air conditioners off of fair power allowed. No generators allowed without permission.

Section B - FFA Team

Section C - Open Youth - Livestock Judging Premium Points Blue-25 Red-15 White-10

It will be held in conjunction with the regular 4-H and FFA Livestock Judging Contests. The rules will be the same (no talking, turn cards in during allotted time, etc.). Ribbons and premiums will be given. Each contestant must leave his/her name and address at the livestock office and get an exhibitor's number.

50 premium points will be awarded to all Holders in the Livestock/Dairy Judging Contest.

DEPARTMENT 99 - HOMEMAKERS CONTEST

Superintendent: Cynthia Burkett

1st Place $25

1. Enter exhibits in four of the following Homemaker Departments: Food Preservation, Baked Foods, Horticulture, Flowers, Clothing and Needlework.

2. Exhibitors must have entries in at least four departments. It is not necessary to enter all six departments, but Exhibitors must have received one blue ribbon in four of the Homemaker Departments.

3. The contest is open to ALL age groups.

4. Exhibitors must notify each department superintendent of their participation exhibit item in this contest.

5. The superintendents will determine placing.

6. Entries will be judged on originality, overall appearance - (eye appeal), and fair theme.

7. Entries must have a special sticker attached by department superintendent to signify contest item.

Don't forget each entry is judged with the fair theme as gaining additional points so remember to include this year's fair theme in each of your exhibits for this event. Also, you must receive a blue ribbon on at least one item in four of the departments, so be certain to enter several items in each department. Good luck to all entrants, wives, daughters, sons, mothers, fathers, bachelors, grandma and grandpas, this is your chance to prove what you can do. Let's make this contest fun to win. Anyone can do this.

WASHINGTON "SPUD" CONTEST

Sponsored by: HARVEST FRESH PRODUCE $100 prize for the winner of each category
 All other entries will receive a participation ribbon. Anyone can enter, there are no age divisions. One entry per category, per person. The biggest potato will be by weight, not length.
 The most unique will be judged by oddity, color, size and shape.
 Categories: Biggest Spud & Most Unique Spud

DIAPER DERBY CONTEST

Schedule will be posted on the website & at the horse office

1. Adams County Fair is not a State Qualifying Event.
2. This is a non-sanctioned show. Any problems regarding conduct, safety, health and well-being of the horse and/or eligibility of the exhibitor will be directed to the Horse Superintendent. There are guidelines posted in the Horse Office for handling disputes. Once a ruling is made by the Horse Superintendent, Livestock Committee, Judge and/or Fair Association, it is FINAL.
3. All classes will run according to the 4-H Horse Contest Guide (PNW574). It is the exhibitor's responsibility to know the rules and that includes restricted equipment. Misconduct may cause disqualification and/or dismissal from the fairgrounds. 4-H and FFA members cannot show a stallion. ASTM & SEI safety approved helmets are required at all times (while mounted or in showing).
4. Ribbon and Premium Points are awarded for each 4-H & FFA Class. It is at the Judge's discretion whether to award Grand and/or Reserve Grand awards based on performances. Grand and Reserve Grand Champions may also receive trophies, plaques, belt buckles or other prizes.

5. Large classes may get divided depending on the number of entries. The top three of each group will return for the final judging.
6. All 4-H & FFA exhibitors must fit and show their own animals. The top winners of Fitting and Showing must compete in the Round Robin. If unable to compete, the Horse Superintendent must be notified.
7. 4-H and FFA exhibitors can cross enter into the Saturday Open Horse Show and compete. You will wear the same exhibitor number. Project horses are not allowed to compete in Open Games or Open Trail, but can do fitting & showing; however, you can ride a different horse in both these classes.
8. A class may be combined with 4-H & FFA exhibitors but each group will be judged separately.
9. Choose the best class suited for you and your horse. Entries in walk/jog and walk/trot classes can NOT enter classes that lope or canter. Likewise, entries competing in Novice Classes can't enter regular classes. Green Horse classes are for horses 5 years and younger and these entries cannot enter regular classes.
10. No one is allowed in the arena other than the judge, ring steward and exhibitors for each class, unless specified in the class (such as leadline). The judge can specifically invite someone as needed.
11. The judge may ask any exhibitor to leave the arena for safety concerns and/or misconduct. For example, a rider with an unsafe horse or who is unable to control his/her mount will be asked to dismount and leave the arena.
12. If you have conflicts with other livestock classes, please let the horse office know as soon as possible and we will do our best to accommodate your show schedule conflicts.

1. All Open Performance Horse Entries must be complete and to the horse office with payment before 8am on Saturday of the show. You may pre-enter before the fair by mailing it in or during the fair at the horse office.
2. You may not put a horse in a stall without first checking in with the horse office, a stall card from the office is required to be displayed, no matter how long the horse will be there. You must keep the stall clean during fair hours and water provided. Stall must be cleaned out completely and checked with the horse office before you leave. Failure to do so will result in a $20 fine and the bill will be mailed out after the show. Should no payments be received there will be an additional $20 charge on future entries at the Adams County Fair.
3. Open Games have been moved to the Saturday prior to the fair opening.
4. This is a non-sanctioned show. Any problems regarding conduct, safety, health and well-being of the horse and/or eligibility of the exhibitor will be directed to the Horse Superintendent. There are guidelines posted in the horse office for handling disputes. Once a ruling is made by the Horse Superintendent, Livestock Committee, Judge and/or Fair Association, it is FINAL.
5. All classes are run according to the 4-H Horse Contest Guide (PNW574). It is the exhibitor's responsibility to know the rules and that includes restricted equipment. Misconduct may cause disqualification and/or dismissal from the fairgrounds. 4-H and FFA members cannot show a stallion.

6. Ribbons are awarded for each class. It is at the judge's discretion whether to award Grand and/or Reserve Grand awards based on performance.
7. Large classes may get divided depending on the number of entries. The top three of each group will return for the final judging.

9. Choose the best class suited for you and your horse. Entries in walk/jog and walk/trot classes (Open Youth under 9 classes) cannot enter classes that lope or canter (such as Open Youth under 13). Likewise entries competing in Novice Classes can't enter regular classes. Green Horse classes are for horses 5 years and younger and these entries cannot enter regular classes.
10. No one is allowed in the arena other than the judge, ring steward and exhibitors for each class unless specified in the class (such as lead line). The judge can specifically invite someone as needed.
11. The judge may ask any exhibitor to leave the arena for safety concerns and/or misconduct. For example, a rider with an unsafe horse or who is unable to control his/her mount will be asked to dismount and leave the arena.
12. All exhibitors must wear proper attire for English or Western (long pants, long sleeve shirt, riding boots). All 4-H & FFA exhibitors and riders under age 18 must wear ASTM & SEI approved safety helmets. Riders over 18 are required to wear either a hat or helmet.
13. Horses may be stabled during the fair week. Check in is Tuesday by 8:00 p.m. unless pre-arrangements are made with the Horse Superintendent. Stalls may also be claimed by pre-registered exhibitors on the Saturday prior to the starting of the fair, but horses aren't to be stalled until Tuesday after 2pm. All horses stabled must be entered in scheduled fair classes and must remain until Sunday morning release time at 8:00 a.m. Open Show horses needing stalls for the day and horses used in the Rodeo Queen competitions must contact the Horse Superintendent.
14. Stallions will not be stalled. A stallion is a male horse, 2 years of age and older.
15. There is no riding in the stall or barn areas. All horses must be led from stalls to warm-up arena or show arena. Contestants can be mounted in the waiting area between the entry gate at the show arena and the warm-up arena.

16. Exhibitors using the wash rack and surrounding areas are expected to keep them clean. Premium points will be withheld on any exhibitor found leaving any mess.
17. Animal neglect and/or abuse will not be tolerated. Animals observed without food or water for extended periods of time will cause the exhibitor to forfeit all premium points upon investigation by the ethics committee. The Horse Superintendent reserves the right to refuse any entry that does not meet standards of proper care and can dismiss them from the fairgrounds.
18. Read, fill out and sign entry form. Use one entry form per horse. If cross entering in Open, follow the rules for Open and fill out the Open Entry as well. A signed copy of the National Show Ring Code of Ethics Form must be enclosed with all entry forms.

4-H & FFA Groom Squad (Must pre-register on Wednesday with team member names in the Horse Office.) Draft Horse Contest (Times TBA)

SATURDAY

9:00 a.m. Open Horse Show Begins

See class list for order of show.

Following the Performance Classes will be the scheduled fun classes. Fun classes may be subject to change as time allows.

DEPARTMENTS 05 & 06 - Poultry, Rabbits & Cavies

1. All exhibits must be pre-entered by listed cutoff date, and in place by 8 p.m. Tuesday.
2. Each exhibitor must provide water and clean own cages. Exhibitor must keep all exhibits well groomed, fed and clean until the close of the fair. No animals may be removed before Fair closing.

3. Animals observed without food and/or water for extended periods of time, exhibitor will forfeit all premium points and be pulled from sale line-up upon investigation by the ethics committee.

4. Each exhibitor must sign up for at least two hours of barn duty. All children under 12 need an adult with them for barn duty.

5. An animal showing symptoms of disease or external or internal parasites of any kind will not be allowed to remain in the barn.

6. The Rabbit department will be using both the American and Danish System of judging. Each animal or exhibit shall be placed according to the decision of the judge and such placing shall be final. Exhibitors interfering with a judge will forfeit premiums. ALL JUDGES' DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

7. Exhibitors must own all rabbits/poultry they exhibit. Exhibitors are to show their own animals for judging unless excused by superintendent.

8. LIMIT TO TWO ENTRIES PER CLASS not to exceed 10 animals per department (Poultry or Rabbits). List on Livestock entry form number of animals to be shown. Substitutions are allowed only in same breed, variety and sex as originally entered. Animals over-weight or underweight or wrong sex will only be judged in meat classes.

9. No does with litters will be accepted.

10. All rabbits must be identified by a permanent and legible earmark. No felt marker numbers. Tattoos must be permanent.

12. Any exhibit left in building not claimed within 12 hours of close of fair will be disposed of at the discretion of building superintendent and Fair Board. All animals entered at owner's own risk and the Adams County Fair will not be responsible for the entries, though all due care will be used to protect them.

13. All 4-H and FFA members will be judged on herdsmanship and be required to decorate their club cages. Rules are printed under herdsmanship contest.

Fur and Feather Auction Rules

1. The Fur and Feather Auction will be held Saturday in the Sale Barn.

2. 4-H Jr., Int., Sr. and FFA members enrolled in Rabbits and/or Poultry may sell one entry per exhibitor. This may be one bird or animal. Sale animal must be owned at least 45 days prior to Fair and may not have gone through another fair sale. All animals and birds must be born or hatched AFTER Jan 1st of current year.

3. Exhibitor may sell only one animal at this fair. All 4-H and FFA Market Sale Rules apply.

4. Auction animals must be entered in the Fair.

5. Notify superintendent at time of entry which animal is to be sold. Market animal placing highest in market will be sold at the sale.

6. All market rabbits will be a market breed rabbit. This means there will not be any fancy breeds or dwarf animals allowed in the sale.

DEPARTMENT 05 - POULTRY

Superintendent: Julie Reed 750-7998, Assitant Sammi Davey

1. Coop in from 3:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday. All birds will be checked for health and lice/mites before being allowed in cages. DO NOT put a bird in a cage without Superintendent permission.

2. Limit two entries per lot, class and variety (i.e. two blue quail cockerels, or two white crested polish pullets); NOT to exceed 10 entries total. Substitutions are allowed only in same breed class, variety and lot as originally entered.

3. Each exhibitor must provide fresh water and feed own birds, and clean own cages before 8:00 a.m. and after 6:00 p.m. daily.

4. All 4-H, FFA & Open Youth will be judged on herdsmanship.

5. All entry forms must be complete with Section, Class # and Lot #. Please specify variety under "Name of Class". Lot, may be filled out under Class/lot on entry form.

6. All entry forms must be complete with Section, Class, and Lot. Cages are assigned by information listed on entry forms. Complete information is necessary in order to assign the proper size cage and the correct section of the barn. If you need help filling out the entry form contact the superintendent.

7. All Market animals must be born after Jan 1. Please include hatch dates (estimated dates are accepted) with entry information.

8. Please dust your birds 14 days prior to the fair. Birds showing signs of mite/lice infestations will be sent home.

9. Please specify number of cages you will need on your entry form. Cages will be assigned by superintendents on a first come, first serve basis with 4H and FFA given priority.
