Terms and Conditions 2018

- Standard term fees are for 9 weeks. There are no reductions for absence - sickness, injury or holidays.
- Fees must be paid in full prior to each term commencing. Late fees incur an additional $10 charge.
- Fees include class tuition and administration.
- Costume and event admissions are additional to standard term fees.
- Cancellation of enrolment, it is the adult or guardians responsibility to inform Greydis Dance of any cancellation. There are no refunds for cancellations.
- In the unlikely event that Greydis Dance cannot proceed with a class, a catch up class will be provided at an alternative date and time.
- Greydis Dance reserves the right to change fees or timetable without prior notice. However, we will endeavour to inform parents and carers of any changes as soon as possible
- Intellectual property, exercises, combinations and routines taught in class remain the property of Greydis Dance. They cannot be taught or performed outside the studio without permission.
- No photos or videos may be taken in class, or rehearsal without prior consent.
- Lost property – Greydis does not accept responsibility for loss or damage to personal property.
- Physical contact maybe necessary when helping to demonstrate or correct a student's technique.
- We do not accept liability for personal injury or illness to any child attending class. It is the responsibility of the caregiver to ensure children are fit and capable to attend class on any given day.
- Occasionally photographs or videos may be taken by Greydis Dance during class, or performances. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, you give consent for these photos to be used on the website, Facebook or advertising purposes.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that we have the correct details for you and your child and keep us updated of any changes to contact details or health issues
- Greydis Dance reserves the right to amend or alter these terms and conditions at any time without prior notice.
- Parents must to remain outside the studio while students are in class. It is important to create a safe environment where each child can learn to express themselves, without pressure from adults.

Code of Conduct

- Parents and carers have a responsibility to notify Greydis Dance of any illness, injury, or absences to classes.
- Students are expected to conduct themselves in a disciplined manner whilst attending classes and be respectful to both teachers and fellow pupils at all times. This will ensure the safety and well-being of everyone.
- Children should arrive promptly, correctly dressed and attend classes regularly. Parent or guardian will collect their children immediately after the class concludes.
- Parents and guardians may sit outside the class entrance during lessons. Due to the number of parents and possible sibling we ask non participants remain out of the dance studio while lessons have commenced.
- Please be well groomed for every lesson. Students should wear stretch pants or tights, t-shirts and soft foot ware such as sneakers or dance shoes. No Jeans or restricting clothing.
- For safety no jewellery should be worn in class, with the exception of stud earrings only.
- No food or drink may not be brought into the studio, with the exception of bottled water.
- Student phones are to remain in their bags and not touched during a lesson.
