

Feelings always follow faith. Always. If we believe we're threatened, we'll always feel fear. If we believe we're safe we'll inevitably feel peace. If we believe we're loved, we'll feel loved and happy. We can't change our feelings on command. If we want to change our feelings we have to change our beliefs. How we feel about anything is determined by what we believe about it. Feelings follow faith. This little poem illustrates that. "Three men went walking on a wall—feelings, faith, and fact. / Feelings took an awful fall and faith was taken back. / But fact stood firm and pulled faith up/ And feelings came up too." Feelings follow faith. The promises of God are facts. If we truly believe them, we not only inherit them in the age to come; even now we experience the full joy of our salvation, "joy unspeakable and full of glory" (1 Pet. 1:8). All for Jesus, Richard

LIVING HOPE FOR HONDURAS

Living Hope has a new website. www.livinghopeforhonduras.org. We have made this new site easy to use. Once on the website, you simply go to the bottom and click on "BECOME A PARTNER." There you can donate via a credit or debit card one time, or monthly, and you choose the amount. You can give whatever you are led to give. As little or as much, you decide. Please pray first and meditate on it. Let God help you decide. There is a matching dollar for dollar campaign taking place until December 15th for the general operating costs. I am personally pleading with you to become a partner with us for the future. Each board member of Living Hope has been asked to secure a minimum of 10 people willing to give $25 per month. That's less than $1 per day or about the cost of a cup of coffee. Of course, there are some cups of coffee that if replaced could fund another children's home. I am asking personally for you to help me far exceed this challenge. God Bless & Merry Christmas, Johnnie Pilgrim
