It is the policy of IBLCE to make best efforts to insure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in educational activities which are recognised for IBLCE Continuing Education Recognition Points (CERPs). All speakers/presenters participating in any programme recognised for IBLCE CERPs are expected to disclose to the programme audience any affiliations that may have a bearing on the subject matter of their presentation. Such affiliations include, but are not limited to:

- Companies and commercial entities as defined in the IBLCE Minimising Commercial Influence on Education Policy
- Any other persons or entities related to the subject matter of the presentation topic or the general topic of the programme as a whole.

The intent of this policy is not to prevent a speaker from making a presentation. It is merely intended that any potential competing interest shall be identified openly so that participants may form their own judgments about the presentation with the full disclosure of pertinent facts. The participants will determine whether the speaker’s competing interests may reflect a possible bias in either the exposition or the conclusions presented.
