Speaking after Asbury, Hosier delivered his first sermon – "The Barren Fig Tree", concerning Luke 13:6–9 to the black Methodist congregation at Adams's Chapel in Fairfax County, Virginia, in 1781. "The white people looked on with attention" even at the first performance; subsequently, they would often be moved to tears. Dr. Rush, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, declared it to be the greatest sermon he'd ever heard
