53 SUNDAYS 2012
Missionaries to Pray for, Points to Ponder
Amy Norris
A small group of ministers in Nottingham, England set up a society for foreign missions in 1792. They pledged their own money and placed it in a snuff box. By the next year, they had sufficient money to send their first missionary, William Carey, to India.

Today, NC Baptists do not keep their missions dollars in snuff boxes. They establish a budget for missions and send it in to the Cooperative Program, which is much bigger than a snuff box.

Missionary Highlight
John Smith, Jr., NAMB Missionary
Pontiac, Michigan

Nearly a third of the 60,000 residents of Pontiac are unemployed. Drugs, crime and unemployment combine to make life there very difficult.
Please pray for our North American missionary, John Smith, and his church as they minister in a hard place to share the love of Christ.
