DESCRIPTION: The Red Wing Hunter was an oft copied bow model. One of the fastest vintage recurves ever made. A highly respected hunting bow. This one is the short model, and in very good condition for its age. From the Wing/Head era. No delamination; no cracks; limbs are straight. Overlays and tips are in great condition. No drilled holes. No chips, dings or cracks. No stress lines or crazing. Decals are intact and in excellent condition. A few scratches and scuffs here and there. There are a faint blemishes on the upper and lower limbs— likely from where a type of Quicker Quiver was attached to the limbs for an extended period of time (see pics). Comes with a brand new string.
