Hunan Larchmont

Review Highlights - This Larchmont "standby" has become a "reliable" spot for "better-than-typical Chinese food" "before the movies" thanks to an "ample selection" of specialties and a staff "that does its best to please"; some say it's... "old-fashioned", with decor that's "straight out of the 1970s" (green tablecloths and pink napkins) and... "gets crowded" due to its "good location."
