The 2019 Show for March 16-17, 2019
NEEDS member volunteers to make it a success!!

As of the February meeting the Show has 25 vendors and is full to capacity. Big Thank You to the Show Committee!!

Bonnie Theard is coordinating the Volunteers so please contact her to check where help is still needed. She will have the volunteer clip board at the March meeting so everyone can verify their time slots.

Jane Stacy is organizing the "Cookies" for the vendors. She would like two dozen cookies (or 25 would be better) from each volunteer. So far we have 8 volunteers: Cynthia Brignac, Carol LeBell, Ellen Cook, Stephanie Prunty, Genny & Al Melillo, Vicki Hale, Carole Martinez. They are needed at the convention center on Friday or Saturday morning of the show. Please contact Jane to let her know you wish to help.

Dealer Check In/unpacking on Thursday from 11am to 5pm and Friday from 9am to 5pm. Take Down/Packing begins right after the show closes at 4pm and Load Out begins as soon as things are packed up (around 5-5:30 for the fastest booth to finish packing).

Check with Bonnie for time slots to help.

All photos and information for the next Newsletter needs to be received by March 28th, Thank you, Carol LeBell - lebell.c@gmail.com

Program: Mother in the Kitchen
Known as Pink Prayer Ladies (also in blue)
by Enesco

Presented by Charlotte Baham

Pink Prayer Ladies (also Blue Prayer Ladies) made by Enesco were originally called Mother in the Kitchen. Each one includes an appropriate prayer for the action. She has 23 pieces in the collection and Charlotte brought 13 of these pink ladies including one in blue. One of Charlotte's favorite pieces is the cookie jar she acquired from Madeline Willoughby's collection. Penny Solis sold Charlotte the bank, Mother's Pin Money, at the first CCDGS meeting Charlotte attended. Her favorite was her first piece the soap holder with "A Mother's Work is Never Done". A wall plaque she found in Destin was her last piece purchased. The series has canisters, napkin holders, tooth pick holders, bells, bud vases, instant coffee containers, spoon holders, air freshener holders, and a teapot. She does not buy online, the thrill is in the hunt.
