Florence Christian Church Awarded Certificate of Recognition

At the August BCA meeting, Florence Christian Church was awarded the Certificate of Recognition for their continued support and dedication to our community and the BCA's mission and vision.

Susan Diamond, Senior Minister with Florence Christian Church, accepted the award on their behalf. Florence Christian has been a huge advocate for substance abuse and ad-

Each support group will have different topics of discussion and presenters guiding these discussions. These topics include:

- Handling behavioral issues
- Parenting skills
- Self-care for the caregiver
- Navigating the judicial system
- Rules and routines

The first topic on September 14th will be Handling Behavioral Issues. The Family Nurdiction recovery groups and the families involved in this process.

They have also supported BCA's prevention efforts in the community by volunteering at events, donating to our cause, and donating their facility for the Relatives Raising Relatives Support Group.

The Relatives Raising Relatives and Others Group will begin on September 14th. This group will meet every other month thereafter from 10:30-11:30am at the BCPL, Main Branch and from 6-7:30pm at Florence Christian Church.

Snacks and refreshments will be provided during the day program and dinner will be provided during the evening program. Childcare and activities for the children will also be provided.

turing Center will present on this topic.

Door prizes will also be awarded to families that attend these support groups. Additionally, there will be various social outings for the families.
