APRIL PHUN ACTIVITIES

On the morning of April 6th, “Koda,” Barbara and Floyd’s four legged son, hosted the Easter basket building extravaganza at his home in Lake Placid. His parents provided mimosas and bagels for the twelve bunnies- in-training. Eighty treat bags were filled for RCMA; each bag contained a stuffed toy, tooth brush kit & blow bubbles, along with plenty of edible goodies and activities for the teachers to share with the children in groups. In addition, five large baskets were created for ARC - one for each ARC home. This benefitted thirty residents. Yup more candy and fun items. Finally, two big bags were stuffed with toys and plenty of chocolate to benefit sixty Heartland Horses riders and volunteers. Koda was beat, but never stopped smiling while wearing his bunny ears and supervising his staff. Australian Shepard herding dog, he put all of his skills to the test making this a success!

All items were delivered to RCMA, ARC and Heartland Horses later the same day.

We welcomed back entertainer extraordinaire Jesse Ray Stout for our April 24th Phlocking and collected much needed items for RCMA. Thanks to all who attended and to those who were not able to attend but still found a way to contribute to this great organization.
