

Waller, Robert

Robert E. Waller, 82, of Oak Beach died Thursday morning, Oct. 19, 2000, at Courtney Manor, Bad Axe, following a six-week illness. He was born April 8, 1918, in Detroit to the late Harry and Gertrude (Hacker) Waller. Mr. Waller never married and was employed at Hacker Hardware in Detroit until he retired. After retiring, he stayed busy as a handyman both in his Detroit neighborhood and at Oak Beach, a move he made in 1996. He remained in good health until several weeks ago, always enjoying his time with family and friends. Surviving are his sister, Ruth Brown of Oak Beach; his niece, Barbara Evans of Oak Beach; and his grand-nephew, Tom Evans and his wife, Mary Jane, of Ocala, Fla. At his request there will be no visitation or funeral services at this time. A memorial service will be conducted at a later date. Arrangements are being handled by the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville.
