Fall Newsletter 2012

FALL HARVEST FEST Sunday, September 16, 2012 12:00-5:00 pm Clark House Museum

Plans are underway for our annual Fall Harvest Fest! This year will feature a Civil War display, entertainment by the Civic Broadway Singers, food, a rummage and more!

We are currently looking for contributions of produce, preserves and bakery (cookies, cakes, pies) to be sold the day of the event as well. Items can be brought a few days ahead of the event as long as refrigeration is not needed. Please call the Clark House if you wish to donate something or drop it off the Wednesday prior to the event between 1-4 pm while volunteers will be on site.

Rummage items are still needed! Below is a list of items we will and will not accept for the rummage. Please bring items to the Clark House during drop off times listed below. We are also looking for newspapers to wrap glassware, grocery bags to carry purchases and brown bags for the 50% sale from 4-5 pm.

RUMMAGE ITEMS WE CAN ACCEPT:

Knick knacks, specialty linens or bedding, Christmas or holiday decorations, antiques & vintage items, crafts, old books, small working kitchen appliances, dishes, kitchen items, home furnishings, artwork, decorative lawn art, small furniture items, vintage clothing, and decorative baskets.

RUMMAGE ITEMS WE CANNOT ACCEPT:

TVs, computers, food, cosmetics, perfume, clothes, large furniture, drapes, electronics, large appliances, and exercise equipment.

RUMMAGE DROP-OFF TIMES:

Wednesday, September 5, 1:00-4:00 pm
Saturday, September 8, 9:00 am-12:00 pm
Sunday, September 9, 1:00-4:00 pm
Wednesday, September 12, 1:00-4:00 pm

CIVIL WAR ENCAMPMENT - JULY 28-29, 2012

A HUGE SUCCESS!!

The Civil War Encampment was held July 28th & 29th at the old St. Mary's Church. It was a wonderful weekend and a huge success!

The Encampment featured military and civilian re-enactors. Members of Battery B, 4th U.S. Artillery, and their original cannon and limber, performed two drill presentations. The Timekeepers, a civilian group, set up their tents and brought an assortment of period furnishings and household tools that took us back in time. There was a Sutlery Shop (peddler's store) and an on-site recruiter looking to sign up young men for service. On Sunday afternoon there was a Cemetery Walk and we visited the resting sites of our veterans and several other prominent individuals from the early days of Pewaukee.

Below are several pictures from the weekend. The PAHS Board has decided to hold another Encampment next year, so if you missed it this year, be sure to watch for more information for the 2013 Encampment!

Special thanks to our motivated group of volunteers who put in countless hours to make this event a success!

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION OPEN HOUSE

The PAHS Board would like to take an extra moment to thank and show appreciation for all of the volunteers that put in countless hours of time to help maintain the Clark House, run special events, put together exhibits, and the list goes on and on. The Clark House and the Pewaukee Area Historical Society would certainly not exist without the help of many wonderful volunteers!

If you are a current volunteer, be sure to leave your name and address either on the voicemail of the Clark House at 262.691.0233 or in Kelley Woldanski's mailbox at the Clark House. Invitations will be mailed at the beginning of October.

Our appreciation open house will include a light meal (potluck style) as well as a thank you gift provided by the Board of the Pewaukee Area Historical Society. Our event is scheduled for Wednesday, October 24, 2012 at 5:00 pm at the Clark House museum.

Be sure to get us your name and address no later than September 21st to be included! Thank you to all who have helped make 2011 and 2012 great successes!

UPCOMING EVENTS FROM WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY WEBSITE

'Bottoms Up: A Toast to Wisconsin's Historic Bars & Breweries' Book Event

This event celebrates Wisconsin's taverns and the breweries that fueled them. Beginning with inns and saloons, the book explores the rise of taverns and breweries, the effects of temperance and Prohibition, and attitudes about gender, ethnicity and morality. The book features 70 taverns and breweries from around the state. Authors Jim Draeger and Mark Speltz will be at Miller Inn in Milwaukee to talk about their book and there will also be a preview of the companion documentary by Wisconsin Public Television. This event is free and open to the public. October 3, 2012 at 7:00 pm at Miller Inn in Milwaukee, (4251 W State St). Contact 414-931-2337 for more information.

'Putting Down Roots: Gardening Insights from Wisconsin's Early Settlers' Book Event

Culture and history can be passed from one generation to the next through the food we eat, the vegetables and fruits we plant and harvest, and the fragrant flowers and herbs that enliven our gardens. This book reveals how the plants our ancestors grew tell stories about their way of life. Marcia Carmichael, author of "Putting Down Roots" will be speaking on behalf of the Southeast Wisconsin Master Gardeners and signing books. This event is free and open to the public. October 20, 2012, time TBA at Boerner Botanical Gardens in Hales Corners, (9400 Boerner Drive). Contact 414-525-5601 for more information.
