

John B. "Bim" Kuhl

John B. "Bim" Kuhl, 69, passed away Oct. 16, 2010 at his home with his family by his side.

John was born Jan. 1, 1941 in Bay Port, to Frederick and Lillian (Dilsworth) Kuhl.

John graduated from Bay Port High School in 1958. He was employed for 37 years at Sebewaing Industries as a die setter. He also worked for commercial fishing for the past 49 years. John's many interests included fishing, hunting, trapping and building purple martin houses. He loved his hometown of Bay Port. He loved his family and enjoyed being with his grandchildren.

John is survived by his wife, Sheryl (Herman); his children, Tammi (John) Pohl of Comstock Park, Scott Kuhl of Gagetown, Jodi (Jim) Hamel of Bay Port and Cindy (special friend Jim) Kuhl of Stuarts Draft, Va.; his grandchildren, Bentley, Spencer, Mason, Mallory and Sawyer Pohlo, Harrison, Madison and Ethan Hamel; his brothers, Richard (Peggy) Kuhl and Warren Kuhl; his sisters, Onnallee Chiotti and Janet Jahr. He also is survived by many loving nieces, nephews and friends.

John is predeceased by his grandchildren, John Sawyer Pohl and Evan Richard Hamel; his sisters, Kathryn Gelski, Virginia Kuhl, Betty Wiebeck and Mary Ann Zelkowski; his brothers, Fritz and James Kuhl.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to noon Tuesday at Juengel & Mellendorf Funeral Home in Sebewaing. A graveside service will be conducted at New Bay Port Cemetery around 12:15p.m.