Good morning,

Yesterday, retired Assistant Supervisory Air Marshal in Charge (ASAC) [REDACTED] called and spoke to me for over 20 minutes to tell me that his wife, [REDACTED] was sexually assaulted by former TSA Federal Air Marshal Service (FAMS) Assistant Director Patrick Sullivan, a retired Secret Service manager. Sullivan is now an Assistant Inspector General for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency:

<https://m.govexec.com/oversight/2016/05/epa-says-it-cannot-prevent-employees-registered-sex-offenders-interacting-public/128413/>

[REDACTED] got a settlement and an early retirement as a Federal Air Marshal (FAM).

ASAC [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] is only allowed to disclose her Sullivan-incident when appropriate investigators contact her.

ASAC [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] and that investigators may contact her through him via:

[REDACTED]@me.com

Cell: 859-[REDACTED]

Sullivan's affair with another FAM, M [REDACTED] is directly related to CHARGES 1 and 2 of my removal proposal.

I disclosed the Sullivan, [REDACTED] affair, they're trip together to Brazil with current TSA-FAMS Director Roderick Allison, and the Fairfax County Virginia Police-response incident between Sullivan and FAM [REDACTED] to your office in my March 7, 2010 disclosure (File No. DI-10-1470) to your office after then-FAM/now retired Supervisory Federal Air Marshal (SFAM) Gerard Puckerin's unsolicited disclosures to me:

<http://bit.ly/osc2010puckerin>

Mr. Puckerin was subsequently promoted to SFAM after your office referred his disclosure—through me—to DHS-OIG which closed the case when Charles K. Edwards' was in charge of DHS-OIG:

"The panel's investigators said they could not confirm Edwards's role in a report on Secret Service culture because — unlike in the other cases — his office declined to provide any related e-mails or correspondence. Edwards's investigation concluded that the agency did not have a broad leadership or cultural problem in the wake of the Cartagena scandal.

In another instance, the Senate report said, Edwards followed the suggestion of a top DHS official by adding information to a report questioning the effectiveness of advanced imaging screening by the Transportation Security Administration. Edwards's chief investigator complained that the move was an effort to 'derail our report and minimize our findings,' according to the Senate report."

SFAM Puckerin texted and told me that DHS-OIG Special Agents contacted him again in 2016 about the Sullivan/[REDACTED] Brazil-trip and police incident to confirm everything.

SFAM Puckerin's contacts:

Cell: 540-295-0400

Current Baltimore Field Office FAM [REDACTED] also said that DHS-OIG interviewed him in 2016 about Sullivan [REDACTED]:

[REDACTED]

About two years ago I disclosed to DHS-OIG Special Agents Sandra Hackworth and Gary Applegate that a former Special Forces soldier / now-retired FAM told me that another former Special Forces FAM told him that he bailed Sullivan out of a situation in which "Sullivan would have gone to prison for." I did not get any details as the FAM said he "swore an oath" to his fellow Special Forces soldier.

Respectfully submitted,

FAMS Accountability Working Group:

Please see the below email message sent from a concerned FAM. Due to its urgency, it is being directly forwarded to the appropriate representatives in Congress and the Senate.

Message:

FAMS Director Bray constantly preaches the 'culture of accountability', but he does NOT consistently to enforce improper sexual behavior by FAMS management personnel. For example:

Diversity Program Director Margaret Coggins was under investigation for an improper sexual relationship with former Deputy Director Robert Byers and for misuse of a government vehicle. However, this is the individual responsible for ensuring the integrity of the Ombudsman and Diversity Programs. Where is the accountability?

Supervisory FAM Kevin Randolph was accused of improper sexual relationships with several female FAMS employees (see the email below). However, Mr. Randolph was merely transferred to the Ne York Field Office (his hometown) as a 'punishment'. Where is the accountability?

Deputy Assistant Director Patrick Sullivan has had improper sexual relationships with FAMS [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] FAM Douglass has been ostracized due to also having a sexual relationship with Los Angeles Deputy Special Agent in Charge Frank Donzanti. However, [REDACTED] was awarded a promotion to a supervisory position without having to fairly compete due to having sex a management official. Where is the accountability?

Newly promoted Supervisory FAM Rose Tancredi (whom is still on probationary status) was caught having a sexual relationship with a subordinate training officer who was falsifying her shooting and physical fitness records. The training officer admitted this information to the FAMS management in Boston. However, Ms. Tancredi was given a 'pass'. Ms. Tancredi was selected for promotion although more qualified individuals were more qualified and ranked above her. However, since she has a reputation of engaging in sexual favors for management, she was awarded a promotion. Where is the accountability?

African-American Supervisory FAM Darrelle Joiner has been accused of an improper sexual relationship and removed from his position. He has done nothing more than these other individuals. Where is the consistency? So much for 'ZERO' tolerance.

Also, several FAMS have been placed under investigation for ridiculous lack of candor charges. Former FAM Ramon Perez was intimidated and coerced into a removal agreement after having his civil rights violated by the OLE/FAMS and the TSA Office of Inspection. Where is the accountability?

There is not a 'culture of accountability' or 'zero tolerance' for discrimination within the FAMS. Ask Director Bray who, what, where, when, why, and how his so-called 'working groups' and solutions have addressed these important issues. Management utilizes selective enforcement for their colleagues, but use harsh disciplinary measures for FAMS personnel that challenge the system. Nothing has been accomplished with 'working groups'.

After yesterday's session, I can only believe that the Diversity Program is important to all of you. I stayed up all night contemplating whether or not to write this email. Here goes..... There is no faith in the Diversity Program because the so-called Diversity Manager is a joke. This man uses his position to explore the weaknesses of women and then plays upon them to sleep with them. Kevin Randolph has a reputation of being a sweet talker that is only selfish enough to think about getting laid. This is a married man that has no morals. I know at least five women from different offices and previous conferences I attended that Kevin has either tried or was successful at getting in the sack. Just ask around. Therefore, I am bringing this information to you for the good of all female FAMS. Where is the accountability?

I could not bring this to you in person, but I hope this stimulates change to make the Diversity Program successful.

On 3/8/10 TSA/OOI received information from the FAMS which includes a 3/6/10 attachment from FAM [REDACTED]. The attachment is a Gmail message from an unidentified FAM who makes allegations against FAMS HO Deputy Assistant Director [REDACTED] (SES). It is alleged that DAD [REDACTED] was involved in an inappropriate affair with FAM [REDACTED] eventually leaving his wife and family and moving in with FAM Douglas in or around 2007. Furthermore, the unidentified FAM writer alleges that DAD [REDACTED] arranged for a country clearance for FAM [REDACTED] to accompany him on travel to Rio De Janeiro, Brazil for the Annual Interpol Conference. FAM [REDACTED] reportedly did not attend this Conference but allegedly stayed in DAD [REDACTED]'s hotel room in Rio De Janeiro. Lastly, it is alleged that Police in Northern Virginia responded to FAM [REDACTED] residence as a result of a domestic dispute between DAD [REDACTED] and FAM [REDACTED]. Apparently, this matter was never reported to TSA/OOI.
