

Judith Gail Davidson, 72, of Grant Township, passed away on July 9, 2016 at Scheurer Hospital.

Judy was born on January 12, 1944 in Center Line, Michigan to the late Charles and Frances (Smith) Draper.

On August, 16, 1986, she married Bobby Davidson. He preceded her in death on May 26, 2003.

Judy was a member and Deaconess of Son's Life Missionary Church in Sebewaing. She loved to garden and could grow just about anything. Judy loved to read the Bible and listening to Gospel music. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She would help anyone at the drop of a hat.

Judy is survived by her daughter, Shereen Mulrath of Owendale; her sisters, Hazel (Ed) Kudzia of Avoca, Michigan and Belva (Emmett) Ingram of Neosho, Missouri; several nieces and nephews; her best friend, Ann Cox; her "adopted" son, Jerry Deeg, and her neighbor, Tim Young.

She was preceded in death by her son, Martin Michael Kroll; her granddaughter, Myah Mulrath; brothers, Edwin Draper; and sisters, Frances Vernier, Charlene Stern and Janet Campbell.

Funeral service for Judy will be 11 am on Monday, July 18th at the MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe with Pastor Brian Reinhardt from Son's Life Missionary Church in Sebewaing, officiating. Cremation will take place following the service, per Judy's wishes.

Visitation will be 2 – 7 pm on Sunday, July 17th at the MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe and also on Monday, July 18th from 10 am until time of service.

Memorials may be offered to the Son's Life Missionary Church in Sebewaing.
