

CW3(Ret)Don Alexander

Army Chief Warrant Officer 3 (Ret) Donovan (Don) Alexander spent over 26 years in the military. CW3 Alexander started his career with the 2nd Bn, 75th Rangers at Ft Lewis, WA. Where he participated in numerous deployments and attended US Army Ranger school graduating as the Distinguished Honor Graduate of Class 10-79.

In 1983 he was selected for attendance to the Special Forces Qualification Course and was subsequently assigned to the 5th Special Forces Group at Ft Bragg, NC. CW3 Alexander last assignment was to the Combatant Commanders In Extremis Force(CIF), 5th Special Forces Group based out of Fort Campbell, KY. During CW3 Alexander's career he has been involved multiple combat operations to include Desert Shield/ Desert Storm (Saudi Arabia-Kuwait-Iraq), Provide Relief and Restore Hope in Somalia, Joint Endeavor in Bosnia, Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan and Iraqi Freedom in Kuwait and Iraq.

A large part of CW3 Alexander's mission involved training of not only U.S. military personnel, but also foreign personnel as well. CW3 Alexander has extensive experience and expertise in small unit patrol tactics in rural and urban environments, field craft, high-risk entry and assault, and numerous other areas related to Special Operations. CW3 Alexander is a certified instructor of numerous conventional weapons systems as well as a past student of several nationally recognized firearms schools both in the military and civilian sector. CW3 Alexander has conducted and supervised training for thousands of personnel during his career.

As a result of an exemplary military career, CW3 Alexander has received numerous medals, awards, and ribbons to include a Legion of Merit, Bronze Star with V and Oak Leaf Cluster, Combat Infantryman's Badge with Star, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal with Bronze Arrowhead (assault landing), Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Support Medal, Combat Diver Supervisor Badge, Master Parachutist Wings, Special Forces Tab, Ranger Tab and a host of others signifying an accomplished and distinguished career.

Currently, Don works as the Director of Military Sales for Surefire, LLC where he is responsible for product development, field testing and the development of programs directly related to support of the US Military and Special Operations.