Wisconsin Alliance of Artists and Craftspeople, Inc.

strives to promote the rich fabric of the visual arts found in Wisconsin.

Formed in 1980, WAAC is a statewide organization with approximately 400 members consisting of fine artists and fine craftspeople.

Promoting Art Fair Off the Square and Winter Art Fair Off the Square

WAAC produces two art fairs each year. Art Fair Off the Square is traditionally held the weekend after July 4th. It is located on the 200 block of Martin Luther King Boulevard and the walkway of the Monona Terrace Convention Center, Madison, Wisconsin.

The Winter Art Fair Off the Square typically takes place on the second weekend of November. It is located at the Exhibition Hall of the Monona Terrace Convention Center in Madison, Wisconsin.

Both art fairs are open to Wisconsin exhibitors only. Exhibitors are selected by a jury of professional artists. All exhibitors must be members of WAAC.

Additionally, WAAC has an annual exhibition of members' work at the U.W. Hospital in Madison. This month-long exhibition is in February.

Supporting Young People in the Arts

WAAC encourages young artists by providing funding for various educational programs. WAAC incorporates children's events into its art fairs, such as The Young Collector's Corner.

It also provides support to the Wisconsin Art Education Association (WAEA), involving statewide children, K-12 in the arts, and the biennial "Young at Art" exhibition at the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art. As part of WAAC's continuing public education, the WAAC website, artcraftwis.org, contains an informational page to educate the public about a variety of media.

Providing Information and Instruction for WAAC Members

WAAC members receive WAAC WORDS, a newsletter which features information on the art fairs, WAAC's winter workshops and opportunities available to artists and craftspeople. Subsequent to review and approval of content, members may request a link from the WAAC web site to their own.

Artists' workshops such as marketing, legal issues, and other artist related topics are offered periodically in the beginning of the year. The annual member meeting is in March or April. WAAC public art showings are open to members.
