Description of Nominee's Contributions

In 300 words or less, tell why you think the educator you are nominating is worthy of the "Educator of the Year" Award.

Please describe the nominated person's outstanding contribution to special education, including specific examples. Items to consider include, but are not limited to:

- Does the educator have a noteworthy record of contributions to their students, school, and community?
- Has the educator served as a positive role model for their students and the community?
