

LEVEL

The Playing Field

A Celebration and Fundraiser
Benefitting Off the Sideline

March 5, 2020

5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

World Trade Center ▲ Portland

Special Guests

Amy Faust

Emcee

Former Co-host of Mike and Amy in the Morning on 99.5 The Wolf

Amy is best known as one half of the morning radio team "Mike and Amy in the Morning," a CMA award-winning show that recently came to an end after 20 years on 99.5 The Wolf. A passionate advocate for kids in the area, she has helped numerous causes by hosting radiothons and fundraising events.

She is now also as a benefit auctioneer, having recently completed her training and certification. She proudly serves on the board of Youth Music Project in Clackamas County and has volunteered with refugee families in Portland for almost a decade. Her family tree contains four generations of Portland Public School graduates, as her daughter graduated from Grant, Amy went to Wilson, her dad went to Jefferson and her grandfather went to Lincoln. Go Generals/Trojans/Dems/Cardinals!

Eric Knox

Founder, Holla Mentors
and Coach of 2019 OSAA
Champs Benson High
Girls Basketball Team

Eric grew up in Inglewood, CA and moved to Oregon on a basketball scholarship to Oregon State University. After college he put down roots in Portland, founding an organization called Urban Progress, which was recognized by The Skanner (the oldest-black newspaper in Portland) as runner-up for the "Drum Major for Justice" award given to those making a difference in marginalized neighborhoods. He then went on to found HOLLA. He is the head coach for the 2019 Oregon girls high school basketball champs at Benson High School.

Learn more and purchase tickets at OfftheSideline.org