

“Our Mustard Seed”

If we had, had all of the material resources in our hands over the years with no struggles, no battles anyone could have accomplished and succeeded in what we have done.

But where it ends in our accomplishments and begins with the call of God on our life is where God takes the very little and moves the mountains. God brings the impossible to possible.

To the world our life may look small and insignificant, but in the eyes of God it is that mustard seed of faith that brings him pleasure.
