TOP OF THE FOLD

Above: Held on the beautiful grounds at Hummingbird House on September 22nd, the 24th Annual Denim & Diamonds raised funds for the Templeton Education Foundation (TEF) Grant Program. Sponsored by Viborg Sand & Gravel, the evening featured dinner, a live and silent auction, live music, and a casino. "We had a wonderful evening," said Debbie Viborg. Every year, TEF awards thousands of dollars in grants to provide

Templeton Unified School District staff, teachers, and school sites with educational tools and materials that the school district could not otherwise afford. In 2017 alone, TEF awarded $53,400 in grants to TUSD teachers and administrators. Photo courtesy of Francesca Ross at www.filiceimages.com

COMMUNITY

Above: Young “geisha girls” wave to the crowd as the Templeton High School (THS) freshman float titled “Tokyo” passes the reviewing stand at Templeton Market & Deli. The 2018 Homecoming Parade was led by Grand Marshall Don Thorndyke from the Class of 1967 and the parade theme was “Around the World”. Thorndyke follows in his parents footsteps as a staunch supporter of THS athletics. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors for the Eagles Athletics Boosters and the Eagles Alumni Association. Thorndyke Gym at THS is named after his parents.
