Fleur Bradley

is passionate about two things: mysteries and getting kids to read. When she's not active in her local SCBWI chapter, she's speaking at conferences on how to engage reluctant readers. Originally from the Netherlands, she now lives in Colorado, not too far from the historic (and haunted) Stanley Hotel.

Xavier Bonet

is an illustrator and a comic book artist who lives in Barcelona with his wife and two children. He has illustrated a number of middle grade books including the Thrifty Guide series by Jonathan Stokes and Michael Dahl's Really Scary Stories series. He loves all things retro, video games, and Japanese food, but above all, spending time with his family. Visit him at xavierbonet.net and follow him on Twitter or Instagram at @xbonetp.

WHEN JT JACOBSON convinced his mom to accept a surprise invitation to an all-expenses-paid weekend getaway at the illustrious Barclay Hotel, he never imagined that he'd find himself in the midst of a murder mystery. He thought he was in for a "run of the mill" weekend ghost hunting at the most haunted spot in town, but when he arrives at the Barclay Hotel and his mother is accused of killing the hotel owner, he realizes his weekend is going to be anything but ordinary.

Now, with the help of his new friends, Penny and Emma, JJ has to track down a killer, clear his mother's name, and maybe even meet a ghost or two along the way.

Ages 8-12
