Moonlight World Champion Challenge

Please join us on October 1, 2014 at 8pm for the Moonlight World Champion Challenge in the Great Hall at the host hotel (Holiday Inn Six Flags). This year we will be including a delectable dessert buffet. The charge for the dessert buffet is $10.00 per person. Come out to support this wonderful event showcasing some of the best in our breed from around the world.

This year's judges will be announced on September 29, 2014. Entries will be taken September 29 - October 1, 2014. Please contact Carrie Huddleston, Courtney Morris or Stephanie Rogers for an entry form.

A copy of the championship certificate must be provided for verification of the title at the time of entry.

The STCA's Moonlight World Challenge is not held under the auspices of the AKC. The World Challenge is open to AKC, CKC, and FCI Champions of Record. Dogs entered in this competition must be eligible to compete in AKC/CKC/FCI shows, and must not be spayed or neutered.

Judging shall be based on overall soundness, quality of movement, and type as defined in the breed standard. Ideally judges chosen for Tournament shall be a breeder, a professional handler, and a licensed or provisional judge.

Entry fee shall be $ 35.00

Procedure

1. All dogs (males first) enter the ring in numerical order and are checked in.
2. The first three dogs are kept in the ring for judging and the remaining dogs will be released to a holding area.
3. The judges will be in three corners of the ring for the hands on examination. The dogs will move counter-clockwise until all three judges have examined all three dogs. Judging shall be limited to approximately three minutes per dog. Score the sheet after each individual exam.
4. When the last dog of the set has been examined, judges will assemble in one corner of the ring and the dogs will be moved individually on a diagonal down and back then around to the end. Finally as a group they will be moved once around the ring and then exit.
5. Final scoring of the group is completed and score sheets are handed in and the second group of three dogs enters the ring. This continues until all male entries have been examined.
6. All females enter the ring and repeat steps 2 through 5.

7. Once every dog has been examined, there will be a short break while the scores are tallied. The top 8 highest scoring dogs (of either sex) will be called back to the ring for further judging. If there is a tie for the 8th placement, additional dogs will be called back in.
8. Judges are handed new score sheets and may re-evaluate the top scoring dogs. Judges may re-examine each dog in brief, if necessary. Once the final examination is complete, each dog is moved individually, down and back and around to the exit.
9. The score sheets are turned in for final tabulation. The second score of each from the "top 8" will be averaged with the first score. Any resulting tied scores will stand as is for placements.
10. The scores will be calculated. (During this we will do a performance demonstration)
11. The top 4 dogs will be called back in to the ring and the winners will be announced.
