

Cancellation penalties

Notice of tour cancellation must be received by email or courier.

Cancellation after registration and 45 days prior to travel. Non-refundable deposit will be credited to future travel with Global Relations or your deposit can be transferred to another traveler of your choice.

Cancellation 44 to 20 days prior to departure. Loss of tour cost, however 50% of the paid portion of tour cost can be applied to future travel with Global Relations.

Cancellation 19 days prior to departure. Loss of all payments received, however tour deposit can be applied to future travel with Global Relations.

Refunds and credits are not offered to participants who arrive late for or depart early from a tour, or to travelers who don't show up for services and activities.

Note on sharing rooms: If you cancel your tour and were sharing a room with another tour participant the cost of a single room supplement will be deducted from your refund (if any). If no refund is forthcoming, your tour deposit will be applied to the single room supplement.