

ANGUS JAMES McINTYRE

1913 - 1985

Angus J. McIntyre, age 71, of Port Austin Road, Caseville, died Monday, April 29 at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon.

He was born Oct. 10, 1913 in Sheridan Township, son of the late Hugh and Mary Ann (McIntyre) McIntyre. He was united in marriage Sept. 7, 1940 in St. Ambrose Catholic Church, Grosse Pointe, to Cathryn Clancy.

Mr. McIntyre was a Detroit Police detective-sergeant for 25 years and retired from General Motors as chief of security for the design staff in October, 1978, after 15 years. He was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville, Detroit Police Knights of Columbus No. 305, Elks Lodge No. 1588 Ferndale, Fr. Solanus Guild of Detroit, and a WWI and Korea Marine veteran, serving in the Pacific.

Surviving are his wife, Cathryn (Kitty); two daughters, Sr. Moni McIntyre, I.H.M., of Monroe, and Mrs. Sandy (Michele) Fratarcangeli of Troy; four grandchildren, Kerry, Gina, Maria and Michael; three brothers, Raymond of Warren, Allan of Troy and Ronald of Ferndale, and one sister, Mrs. James (Margaret) Behrendt of Detroit. One sister, Helen Gardner, preceded him in death.

A Memorial Liturgy will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville. Rev. Fr. Theodore LaMarre, pastor, will officiate, with interment in the church cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by the Caseville Chapel of the Champagne Funeral Chapels.
