Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.

The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.

We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control:

the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father.

Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

[Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

"It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle." -St. John Paul II

THANK YOU!

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the broken-hearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your spirit, to the glory of God the Father,
Amen. Saint Teresa of Calcutta Vocation Society

Ore siempre

20 de octubre de 2019 • Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy tenemos dos ejemplos que pueden ayudarnos a reflexionar en lo que significa “rezar siempre”. El primero es Moisés, sosteniendo sus brazos en lo alto para que los israelitas tuvieran la mejor batalla. Esta es una postura común de orar en el mundo antiguo, y la Biblia tiene muchas referencias a quien en oración eleva las manos (y los brazos). El segundo ejemplo es de la parábola que Jesús cuenta para demostrar el principio de rezar siempre: la viuda que persistentemente molestaba al juez de quien buscaba justicia. La oración de Moisés es un movimiento extendido por un periodo de tiempo; la petición de la viuda se repite en intervalos frecuentes en el tiempo. La rica tradición de la Iglesia de rezar pone ante nosotros ejemplos de ambos tipos de oraciones.

ES POSIBLE “REZAR SIEMPRE”

Los primeros monjes que vivieron como ermitaños en los desiertos de Egipto y Siria tomaron seriamente el mandamiento de “rezar siempre” y todo aquello en sus vidas estaba acomodado para maximizar el tiempo para la oración continua. Las disciplinas de esos monjes con ese fin se compararon con la de los atletas; la práctica de rezar durante toda la noche fue una especialmente admirada.

El primer modelo de la Iglesia para la oración continua y repetida es la Liturgia de las Horas, el cual fluye del principio de que la oración diaria en ciertos momentos consagra todo el tiempo también como el trabajo que se realiza el resto del tiempo. A cada tiempo de reunión se le conoce como una Hora. Las Horas más significantes son la Oración de la Mañana y la Oración de la Noche (conocidas como Laudes y Vísperas). La prominencia de la Liturgia de las Horas en la tradición de la Iglesia es la razón por la cual muchas otras oraciones y devociones católicas están ancladas igualmente en el tiempo: el Ángelus (mañana, medio día, noche), el rezo diario del rosario u oraciones arregladas para la mañana y noche que están en casi todos los libros de oraciones católicas.

Independientemente de la forma en cómo recemos, nuestra llamada como discípulos es llegar a ser personas de oración con corazones más y más abiertos a la voz de Dios en la oración. Al final, esto es lo que significa “rezar siempre”.

OCTOBER 20, 2019 TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I lift up my eyes toward the mountains;
whence shall help
come to me?
My help is from the LORD,
who made heaven
and earth.
— Psalm 121:1-2

Levanto mis ojos
hacia las montañas;
¿de dónde me
vendrá la ayuda?
Mi ayuda es del
Señor quien hizo
el cielo y la tierra.
- Salmo 121:1-2

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year's most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon. After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church. These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure! —James Field, Copyright © J.
