THE STRAITS TIMES MONDAY, JUNE 23, 1969

One of Hong Kong's most versatile singers, soprano Barbara Ming Yee, will give a recital at the Conference Hall on Aug. 2.

Miss Fei, who is famed as an exponent of Chinese folk and art songs, also sings in German, French, Italian and English, all of which she speaks fluently.

She first studied sing-ing under Hong Kong musician Chao Mei Pa, and then went to Paris to under study Schoene, the German concert singer and teacher.

Salzburg

She has toured Europe and the United States extensively and gave three performances the Salzburg festival in Austria, and a recital last year at the Auckland music festival in New Zealand.

Miss Fei, who is marri-ed, with two children, also performs over radio and television.

Tickets for her Singa-pore recital, presented by the Heralds Choral will be Society here, available at $5, $3, $2 and $1 at the usual booking centres.
