CANADA HEALTH DAY MAY 12TH: Canada Health day is celebrated in health care facilities and community services across the country. This day reminds us that health and healing are essential aspects of our baptismal vocation. We are called to take responsibility for our personal health: to prevent illness and to seek a health lifestyle. Good health concerns the physical, emotional, social and spiritual health of our communities, respect for God's creatures and the nurturing of the whole earth.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS MAY 8TH: The Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.

Please keep in prayer our two seminarians, Frank Quinn and Juan Carlos Jacinto. May God continue to bless them on their journey, nurture them with his steadfast love and strengthen them as they respond to their call to share the Gospel.

INDIGENOUS RECONCILIATION FUND Over the past weeks, it was only possible for me to touch on some of the realities encountered by the Indigenous peoples in Canada. I have mainly touched on the issue of residential schools as this is where some dioceses and religious communities have been directly involved. I am well aware that there is still very much to be done to repair the legacy of the past, to overcome deep-seated systemic racism and to establish an equal footing between reconciled indigenous and non-indigenous peoples. I am also aware that no measure can fully erase the pain of the survivors or that of the people living with intergenerational trauma.

However, by listening to and cultivating trusting relationships with our indigenous peoples while working collaboratively with them, we hope to learn to walk together on the path leading to truth and healing. The projects we will be able to support locally, thanks to your generosity, will be concrete signs of our commitment to accompany our indigenous brothers and sisters on the long road to reconciliation. For those who may not have had the opportunity to contribute to the Reconciliation Fund, there are envelopes still available in the churches. You can pick one up and make your donation whenever you wish. Thank you very much. May God bless us and sustain us in our efforts to bring people together leading to reconciliation.

FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH: COMMUNION, PARTICIPATION AND MISSION A three-part webinar on the Synod on Synodality is being offered by the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis with the CCCB on Wednesday, May 18th, May 25th and June 1st from 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. On May 18th, the theme of Communion: Journeying Together will be explored by Moira McQueen, LL.B., M.Div., Ph.D., Director, Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute and David Daylor, Parish Lay Minister, St. Ann Parish, Hamilton, ON diocese. On May 25th, the theme of Participation: A Co-responsibility will be explored by Sr. Chantal Desmarais, SCSM, Pastoral Agent, Diocese of Joliette. Registration may be done at the CCCB website. For further information, please contact Ms. Margaret Shea-Lawrence at m.shea-lawrence@cccb.ca.

There is a lot to talk about. How is our journey together going? Is our Church listening to us? Is our celebration of the Mass together helping us in our faith? What more can we be doing in the church and in the broader community? How can we better support each other in our faith and our works? Meetings will be set up for discussions. We would like each and every one of you to participate in these discussions. We will seek to give everyone a chance to be heard. The results of these consultations will be provided to our Bishop so he will have the benefit of the full views of our community.

SAVE THE DATE: A very early and preliminary announcement is being made regarding Tending the Soil, Tending the Sower 2022, a day of formation for all catechists, which is scheduled to take place from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 17th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview. The theme this year will be on mystical catechesis, and will be facilitated by Dr. Anne Walsh, from the Redemptorist Faith Formation Team. Anne is one of Canada's foremost catechists and has been on the writing and/or facilitation team for countless projects with the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops. Combined with her beautiful Newfoundland spirituality, this is sure to be a day of shared wisdom, insight and storytelling and will be of special interest to all catechists in the diocese, especially those involved in coaching parents, RCIA, baptismal preparation, marriage preparation. Details concerning registration and sessions offered will appear in your bulletins in late August or may be found on-line at that time at <http://www.diomoncton.ca/en/>.

Exploring our Faith

Who Taught You to Pray?

On Mother's Day, 2003, I attended mass at the Shrine of the Most Holy Redeemer, a church, but not a parish, strategically located amid casinos and hotels on The Strip in Las Vegas. 19 years later, I can still remember the homily from the presiding priest, who shared the story of the very first Liturgy he had ever presided on Mother's Day in his home parish, parents and siblings proudly sitting in the front pew. "Now," he said, "I knew it was Mother's Day. And I knew my mother expected to have that acknowledged with mention made of what a devoted, Christian, faith-filled mom she was. But Mother's Day is not in the liturgical year. It is not a Feast Day of the Church. It is not a sacred event in the life of Christ. So, I made no mention of mothers, Mother's Day, or my own mother during my homily."

In fact, our priest is right. The Ordo for this present liturgical year clearly notes: "Because Sunday is first of all the Lord's Day, undue emphasis must not be given to this secular celebration." Obedient to that order, this new priest did as was expected. However, when one brother went to receive Communion, he whispered, "You are in big, big trouble."

At a celebration with family and friends in his parents' home following the liturgy, gathered to honour this significant moment in the young priest's life, he explained to his mom why he COULD NOT speak about mothers during his homily. His mom looked him in the eye, leaned in for a huge hug, and whispered in his ear, "Who taught you your prayers?"

With some concern that this may be perceived as a stereotypical statement, I believe mothers are the backbone of our faith. The mother of Jesus remained at the foot of the cross throughout the crucifixion, after most of the men who had followed and accompanied him had disappeared in fear. In our Rite of Baptism, when speaking of the child's parents carrying out the "parts truly proper to them in the celebration of Baptism," the Rite states, "they (the mother in particular) carry the infant to the font." (5.3) Clearly, the Church accepts the important role mothers can play in passing on the faith. Throughout the world, particularly in the Global South, it is mothers / grandmothers who balance jobs, family life and other commitments to ensure their children live in their faith and help sustain belief in this God; it is mothers / grandmothers who attempt to teach their children to meet God during everyday life.

My father was a person of faith, who lived that faith daily, but it was my mother who made sure we got to church; it was with her I had conversations of faith. My husband is a person of faith, who lives that faith daily, but he would concede that our children were raised in the Christian faith because of my commitment to it. Increasingly we do see fathers take on roles that were conventionally held by mothers. I acknowledge there are also mothers who fail and neglect their children, even horrifically abuse them. Yet, my lived experience as a catechist shows that 80% or more of catechists are mothers, 70% or more of parental involvement in catechism is by mothers.

So, the Ordo is correct: Sunday is the Lord's Day; Mother's Day is a secular celebration. Far be it from me to argue with Church teaching. But on this Mother's Day, which is also the Sunday traditionally called Good Shepherd Sunday, such a beautiful image of mothering, and as a mother filled with gratitude for her children, the most important of any legacy I may leave; and having had a mother who taught me how to love both God and my family, how can the Church not expect me to speak of mothers? Those women who gave birth to us; many women who may have mothered us; women who are agonizingly longing to be a mother; or women who have failed to mother as they should and carry the guilt of that with them always, are to be remembered today.

Our priest in Las Vegas ended his homily with: "I have never failed to speak about mothers on Mother's Day since," acknowledging the one who began his journey by teaching him to pray. Happy Mother's Day.
