Discussions:

- 23 incoming Freshman came to the Freshman meeting.
- QBC is a 501C3 a separate entity from the Football program.
- Asking more parental help for Coach Rhett. Volunteering goes towards your $300 balance. QBC is not apart of this request. QBC does not keep track of volunteer hours or any money raised towards. Any questions pertaining must be directed to Coach Rhett.
- Red/Black game is on 05/10. Spring game is against Catholic High on 05/15. Both at Jaguars Stadium.
- Vendor trucks will be available: 3D Eats and Oh Taste and See, along with Boston Butt Sales. Signups for volunteers for both games will go out leading up to each game.
- Boston Butts sold on April 19th sale:103. 70 of those were from one buyer.
- Need to push more Boston Butt sales. If every player sold at least one on each sale, we could reach a lot of our goals for the program.
- Summer practice began today. Ends at 6pm. Will not be in new location until August.
- Chow down 07/23, this is our meet and great pot luck to kick off the season.
- Andrews Trainer is at all practices.
- Alicia Sanders asked if Nutrition and water has been discussed with players. Per Coach Rhett, not as much as needed however, will encourage more especially at beginning of summer.
- Previousl, Gatorade was given to Varsity during ½ time at all games. Per Kathy Worley motioned for all teams to have at ½ time. Approved by voting members.
- If any family would like to provide drinks, snacks etc, coordinate with Coach Rhett prior to.
