What is a Disciple-Making Community?

As an exciting follow-up from our series on Evangelism in the book of Colossians, there now comes an amazing opportunity to grow deeper in our understanding of our Great Commission from Jesus. Powell Butte Christian Church is partnering with Redmond Christian Church to bring this opportunity to you!

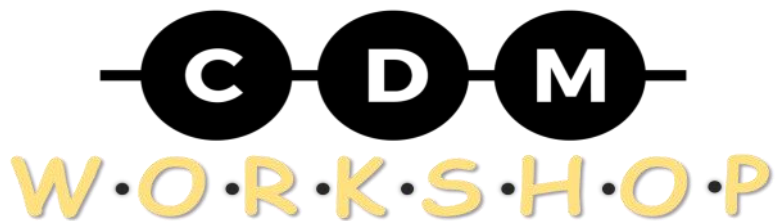

You are invited to join the gathering of disciple-makers hosted by CDM Disciple-Making Community. Paul Watson, co-author of Contagious Disciple Making, will share from his experiences in seeing disciple-making movement around the world and give simple steps in how to engage those around you. Come hear stories and celebrate what God's doing in your city! As we grow there will be some of the gatherings and classes at PBCC.

The first gathering will be at Joel B. home in Redmond. On Friday night, February 22 from 6:30 – 8:00 PM. This first session will introduce you to how a group looks and will be followed by the CDM Workshop Saturday morning at Redmond Christian Church from 8:00 – 9:30 AM (see CDM Training article).

Additional classes will continue throughout the year. Dates, times and place will be announced monthly.

For more information contact Ann A. Or call the church for the address and directions.

Saturday, February 23, from 8 - 9:30 AM at Redmond Christian Church

How do help others in the Church grow from attendees to disciple-makers? Don't just imagine your church growing, imagine it multiplying all over your community!

CDM's Disciple-Making Workshop for Small Group Leaders (open to EVERYONE, including those NOT leading Small Groups) focuses on avoiding the common pitfalls that stunt growth and the key methods that unlock active multiplication. For 15 years, Paul Watson, co-author and founder of Contagious Disciple-Making, has coached groups of all sizes to see an exciting disciple-making movement that is happening around the world, and can happen right here in Central Oregon. Come benefit from Paul's experiences and expertise so that you too can experience Kingdom transformation within your church community.
