Draw and Draw Order: You must compete on the horse in IT'S DRAWN ORDER. If a contestant misses their run they have an option to run at the end of the event, no guarantee on ground placement, meaning if the last rider of the event was 3rd out on the ground the contestant making the re-run would then be 4th out and so forth, there is a $25 fine to the contestant that misses their drawn run and is requesting a re-run.

Dress Code/Western Attire (if required at event): WPRA standard dress code: Long sleeve shirts that are collared and have either buttons, snaps or full length zipper on the front of the shirt, jeans/pants, western boots and western hat or helmet (a fedora is NOT a cowboy hat.) Hats lost in the arena will result in a $10 fine. You will need to visit the office to collect your hat and pay your fine.

Sportsmanship: All contestants and their family members are expected to display good sportsmanship at all times. All decisions by the race director are FINAL. Absolutely zero abuse of any horse will be tolerated. The minimum fine for abuse will be $100 and you may be asked to leave the race. Abusive behavior will be determined by the race operators. No electronic training devices are allowed in the arena for any reason.

Average: Method 1: This method uses a pretty standard rule for averaging, which is: "To figure the average of 2 races: 1st Division = Contestant with the Fastest Combined time. 2nd Division = Fastest Combined Time + 1 second. 3rd Division = Fastest Combined Time + 2 seconds. 4th Division = Fastest Combined Time + 4 seconds.

Awards: Contestants must be present or have a representative present to pick up awards, we will not hold or ship awards.
