

Winter Sundays

DRAWING

JANUARY & FEBRUARY SUNDAYS 3:00-5:00 PM

These 2-hour sessions focus on both the beginner and those seeking to further their skills. Working from still life and other visuals, students will explore various drawing media and techniques for rendering line, shape and texture in the first part. In the latter classes, focus is on landscapes and street scenes to learn perspective and proportion in the media of choice.

PROGRAM

Jan. 13 - Charcoal & Conte Crayon
Jan. 20 - Pencil, Graphite Dust
Jan. 27 - Colored Pencil
Feb. 11 - Subject & Medium of choice
Feb. 18 - Subject & Medium of choice

MATERIALS

Sketch book or sheets (medium weight 50-60 lb), 9"x12" or larger
Newsprint, pad or sheets, 9"x12" or larger (for practice work)
Charcoal stick (medium)
Conte Crayon (Black, Red or Brown) stick
Pencils, wood or mechanical with leads: 6B, 2B, H, 2H, 4H and 6H (or similar range from hard to soft). Do not recommend Derwent.
Colored Pencils
Sharpener and/or pocket knife
Kneaded eraser
Blending stump
Brushes, one small with short bristles

COSTS

Members	Non-Members	College	Youth/Military
$75 (5-class pass)	$90 (5-class pass)	$20 (5-class pass)	15 (5-class pass)
$20 per Class	$25 per Class	$5 per class	$3 per class

INSTRUCTOR

Judy Wolgast is an intaglio printmaker and watercolorist with commercial graphic arts background who has won awards for her works focused on Eastern Shore landscapes.

Materials needed to get started are marked(). Some materials available in class. Members can receive 25% off for a single item once a month at Art Things in Annapolis.*

REGISTRATION

Please register on-line at www.kifa.us

Payment with PayPal (on-line) or send check to KIFA, 405 Main St., Stevensville MD 21666

Questions: Email KIFA at info@kifa.us or instructor Judy at jwolgastdesigns@gmail.com