

Kingsway is specialized in assisting you to obtain authentication from the Chinese Consulate and Embassy easily and quickly

Documents originated in Canada must be authenticated (legalized) in order to be used in China. This process is called document authentication. In BC, the documents must first be authenticated by the Ministry of Justice, then further authenticated by the Chinese Consulate.

If you want to get married in China, we can help you obtain necessary official documents and affidavits in BC, have them translated and authenticated so that you may show to the Chinese authority that your anticipated marriage complies with the marriage laws in China. If you want to work in China, we can help you translate and authenticate your Canadian degree/diploma to satisfy the requirements of your Chinese employer. Our services also cover authentication of the following documents:

- Affidavit of Single Status for use in China
- Diploma and transcript for use in China
- Power of attorney for real estate transaction in China
- No criminal record report for use in China
- Adoption application papers for adoption in China
- Certificate of good standing, financial statement for use in China
- Copies of documents, passport, invoice, etc
- Vital records such as birth certificates, death certificates, marriage certificates, marriage search certificates for use in China
