

Jay Weber, 28
Sauk Rapids, MN
1990 - Nov. 9, 2018

Jay Paul Weber, son of Paul and Julie Weber; brother to Nikki Seguin, her husband Bryce and their two sons Sylus and Austin; brother to Johanna Weber and her boyfriend Brandon Lichte; grandson to Dave and Kathy Gross; boyfriend to longtime girlfriend Megan Duhn, the daughter of Dave and Lori Duhn; died Nov. 9 at the age of 28 from a traumatic brain injury due to an accidental fall.

Born in St. Cloud, raised in Sauk Rapids, Jay traveled north to attend Central Lakes College and never looked back enjoying all the Brainerd Lakes Area had to offer. Golfing, fishing, snowmobiling, playing hockey and coaching the Brainerd/Little Falls 12UA Flying Warriors girls hockey team were some of his pursuits. Known for his independence and generosity, his last gesture was to donate his organs. Jay was employed by the historic Grand View Lodge on the beautiful north shore of Gull Lake and a Baxter resident.

Services will be Saturday, Nov. 17 at Sacred Heart Church in Sauk Rapids with visitation beginning at 10 a.m., Mass at 1 p.m., and a luncheon to follow.
