

Dear Tim, Con't.
October 2018 Sermon Series

Paul isn't done instructing Timothy about taking care of the people in his care. Obviously, caring for those broken by the loss of a husband was significant back in the day, and for the church to step in to help? Counter-cultural! To accomplish that big task required something significant: church leadership, and a church that follows.

Oct 7 Bad Habits 1 Tim 5:11-16

The loss of a spouse can't be put into words, regardless of the age of those involved. Paul, however, recognizes that younger widows have a very difficult time in an area that can actually ruin their relationship with God. What is that one area, and what bad habits can it lead to if not dealt with quickly?

Oct 14 Bad Boys 1 Tim 5:17-21

Paul has some good news, and some bad news when it comes to church leaders and their behavior. Good news? Double rewards! Bad news? Some elders care more about their sin than they do their calling, and because of that Paul not only has some strong warnings but also instruct the church how to challenge those sinning leaders.

Oct 21 Bad Choices 1 Tim 5:22-25

Bad choices lead to bad consequences. We do dumb things, don't be surprised when the result of those choices are bad. Even worse, says Paul, when other people make bad choices and we suffer for it.

Oct 28 Bad Life 1 Tim 6:1-2a

Name one good thing about slavery; I dare you. (Actually, don't.) Slavery is something that even the US is guilty of, and is a plague around the world even to this day. Human trafficking is devastating, and hits closer to home than you think. So, what would Paul tell someone that is a Christian, but also a slave? Trust me; you are NOT going to like the answer.
