ST. TERESA OF AVILA

I am hoping to start a group study, using the communication platform Zoom, of a classic book on prayer and the spiritual life "The Interior Castle" by St. Teresa of Avila.

I thought we may start on Thursday April 23rd at 3:00pm with an introduction to this incredible Doctor of the Church, her life as a Carmelite nun, the historical times significantly being Spain during the Inquisition, and the structure of the book. Each week we will do a chapter and enter ever more deeply into our relationship with God.

This would give us ample time to order a digital copy of the book, and organize ourselves online. Should this interest you, please email me at johnston.angus09@gmail.com.

WARMING FAITHFUL HEARTS

Queen of All Saints Family Faith sessions

To honor Earth day on April 22nd, the confirmation group will be spending some of their free time going out to clean up garbage from various areas around their neighborhoods. They would love for anyone in the parish to take on this project as well so we can help keep our Earth clean from debris. We are also suggesting, should you find any recyclable bottles/cans, that you consider redeeming them and donating the funds to the Ray of Hope Kitchen to help them during this time when donations are low.

Should you decide to join us in our project, please remember to protect yourselves properly with gloves and maybe some type of device to pick up items. And please maintain the social distancing by only including your own family when you go out. And of course wash your hands...

At this time when we are not able to gather together inside as a Church, may we take our Church outside to help nature that needs us as well.

With peace & blessings

Eileen Caissie

Lord, bring healing to our lives,
that we may protect the world
and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty,
not pollution and destruction

A prayer for our earth

Prayers of the Faithful

For the church, called to be an authentic sign of Christ's presence for others.

We pray.

For the world, as we seek to find the gift of Christ's peace, even through closed and locked doors.

We pray.

For those who feel abandoned; for the poor, the lonely, the disenfranchised and for all who suffer.

We pray.

For all who are putting themselves at risk in service to others.

We pray.

For all who experience hatred or prejudice of any kind.

We pray.

For all the sick; for those who have died, and to all who are mourning the loss of a loved one.

We pray.

Where did Thomas Go ?

The world that the Apostles knew had fallen apart. Jesus had been crucified. They were inside with the doors bolted, quarantined if you will because the Roman army was worse than any virus going around. Being an enemy of Rome, being a threat to the Emperor, was a guaranteed death with no vaccine on the horizon.

The most likely option is he was just a frustrated man who had to get out of the house, regardless of the consequences. I like to think he went out looking for answers. I like to think he went out to see Martha and Mary and Lazarus, although they were plotting to kill him too. I think he went to see Mary Magdalene, who had such good news. I like to think that he went to see Mary, for some consolation. I think he went to see Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, who took care of the burial. Did something happen?

I like to think he did these things but I don't think he did. He came back unwilling to believe the good news that he heard. I think he came back as frustrated as when he left. I think at this time of isolation and despair, he turned inward and not out to his friends and, most importantly, to his God.

It is my wish that we all stay connected and interactive in these trying times. Turn to God, and use the support of your healthy friends, those with a good relationship with God, to support and nourish you.

God bless you, Father Angus

Exploring our Faith

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

This week, the readings for the 2nd Sunday of Easter have a theme of “doubt,” as evidenced by Thomas who could not believe that Jesus was alive unless he saw proof. We all have moments of doubt, uncertainties, confusion, disbelief, hopelessness, selfishness and frustrations. Henri Nouwen has stated that, “Doubt stubbornly exists. It’s an unmistakable part of life that we can’t seem to get rid of. We doubt ourselves; we doubt whether or not we’ve made the right decisions, we’re full of doubts about the future. It is our nature to choose control over faith almost every time. When it feels like we can’t control our faith, we can easily give up, especially if it feels like God has given up on us, which is how Thomas must have felt. Faith is hearing God’s clear message in Scripture that we are not alone, that God is with us and He is for us. He gives us peace, peace that comes from knowing that while we may be uncertain about God, God is certain about us.”

At this time, we are all experiencing the stress of the restrictions imposed due to the COVID-19 virus. By staying at home, we cannot enjoy the company of family and friends; we cannot relax from stresses by socializing, going out for dinner; we cannot take our children/grandchildren to a park to play; we cannot celebrate Mass and receive Holy Communion which so often rejuvenates the soul for the week ahead.

There are so many “cannots,” but conversely there are a number of “cans” also. We can take time with our family at home, play games, sit and talk, take the time that a busy household had difficulty doing recently. We can do a purge in our homes and take much needed items to Salvation Army or Harvest House for the homeless, less fortunate. We can say “thank you” to the clerk at the grocery store for working so we can still buy necessary food. We can phone elderly neighbours, single mothers to ask if they need supplies so they don’t have to leave the house. We can pray for those who are on the front lines of this pandemic in our hospitals and for those afflicted that they survive the virus.

Our faith can help us cope with the difficulties, worries at this time. We should not doubt or feel discouraged as Thomas did at first (in today’s gospel reading), but may doubt be transformed into a great acclamation of faith. As long as there is still hope, there will also be prayer. And God will be holding us in His hands.
