

Aklanon Sto. Niño Association of British Columbia Calls on Consul General Austria

04 October 2018 – Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (2L) receives the officers of Aklanon Sto. Niño Association of British Columbia, led by its president Kirv Lamsen (leftmost), to introduce their group and inform the Consulate of their activities and plans for the coming year. Consul General Austria commended the group for their contribution in promoting the Philippine culture and heritage in Canada. She also explored possible partnerships with the group, such as promotion of the local products from Aklan. Joining the meeting are Deputy Consul General Leo Tito L. Ausan (center), Mr. Roel Gumboc (2R), and Mr. Edwin Palabrica (rightmost), association’s vice president and treasures, respectively.

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (3R) poses with the officers of Aklanon Sto. Niño Association of British Columbia, namely Mr. Kirv Lamsen (3L), Mr. Roel Gumboc (2L), and Mr. Edwin Palabrica (2R). Joining in the photo are Deputy Consul General Leo Tito L. Ausan (leftmost) and Cultural Officer Josephine Nacisvalencia (rightmost).