In the event that such damages and assessments shall be less than the security deposit, Landlord shall include a check or money order for such difference, payable to Tenant. Landlord hereby advises Tenant and Tenant hereby agrees that in the event Tenant shall have occupied the premises, Landlord shall be entitled to deduct from the security deposit such amounts as shall be reasonably required to reimburse Landlord for a complete cleaning of all carpeting within the premises. Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall have the right to repaint any and all rooms in which Tenant shall have damaged or irreparably marked the walls, including holes created to hang pictures, etc. Tenant agrees that all such cleaning and repainting shall not be deemed to be "ordinary wear and tear" for purposes of this Lease or Indiana law.

Labor charges shall be assessed for all labor of Landlord or Landlord's agents or employees which shall be incurred by reason of Tenant's failure to comply with this Lease, including repairs which are not ordinary wear and tear, collection efforts, filing of claims, and court appearances. The Landlord hereby reserves the right to affix "For Rent" and/or "For Sale" signs on the property. The exercise of these rights of the Landlord shall never be deemed an eviction or disturbance of Tenant's peaceable use and possession of the premises and shall never render the Landlord liable in any manner to Tenant or any person(s) in the premises. Upon request received from any law enforcement agency, Landlord may permit entry of representatives of such agencies for any legitimate and reasonable purpose, and Tenant hereby waives any and all right to object to such entry and any reasonable inspection and waives all claims against Landlord for such entry and inspection.

- 21. HEALTH HAZARDS AND TERMINATION: Landlord shall have the right, upon notice to Tenant, to enter the premises and test for and remediate any and all potential health hazards which might exist in the premises, including, but not limited to, asbestos, lead (in paint, plumbing, or otherwise), radon, and urea formaldehyde. In the event of such termination, Landlord shall pay the reasonable moving costs of Tenant, shall repay any prepaid rent, shall return all of Tenant's Security Deposit, and shall waive all damages incurred by Landlord for unpaid rent following the date of notice to Tenant of the potential health hazard, and Tenant shall thereupon be deemed to have waived, to the extent permitted by law, any and all claims, known or unknown and actual or contingent, against Landlord for damages based on the existence of such alleged health hazard.
- 22. SMOKE/CARBON MONOXIDE DETECTORS: Tenant hereby acknowledges that Landlord has installed (3) functional smoke detectors and/or carbon monoxide detectors in the premises, in accordance with applicable laws and ordinances. At least once each six months Tenant shall test such detectors to insure that they are in operational condition. In the event that one or more of the detectors shall not be in operational condition, Tenant shall immediately advise Landlord in writing and Landlord shall be responsible for immediate installation and/or replacement of each defective detector or battery. Tenant shall not tamper with or remove any detector or battery but shall allow Landlord to perform any and all maintenance of the detectors and replacement of the batteries. Any batteries which shall be removed by Tenant, with or without permission of Landlord, shall be immediately replaced by Tenant at Tenant's sole expense. Under no circumstances shall Tenant render a detector non-operational. Tenant hereby acknowledges that Landlord has a duty to provide to the Marion County Prosecutor any and all evidence of violation of Tenant's statutory duties with respect to maintenance and non-interference with said smoke detectors. Landlord hereby advises Tenant that the smoke and carbon monoxide detectors located within the premises, installed by Landlord, are presently in good operational condition, and Tenant agrees to return possession of the same detectors to Landlord at the end of the term of this Lease unless Landlord shall have replaced such detector(s).

- 23. ALLEGED OR ACTUAL CRIMINAL ACTIVITY. Tenant shall not commit and shall not permit any person on the Premises to commit any crime, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) "Drug Related Criminal Activity," which means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, or possession with the intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use of a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substance Act, 21 U.S.C. 802);
- (b) Intent to facilitate criminal activity; use of the premises for, or for the facilitation of, criminal activity; unlawful manufacturing, selling, using, storing, keeping, or giving of a controlled substance, as defined in Indiana Code Article 35-48, at any location, whether or not at the premises;
- (c) Engaging in any illegal activity, including, but not limited to, any act defined or described in Indiana Code Sections 35-45-4-2, 35-45-9-1, 35-42-2-1, and 35-45-2-1; and
- (d) Any breach of this Lease which jeopardizes the health, safety, or welfare of the Landlord, his agent, other Tenants, or any other persons, or involving imminent or actual serious property damage.

Conviction of any crime shall not be a condition precedent to the declaration of a material event of default by Landlord as a result of the above actions, and Landlord shall be allowed to rely upon evidence presented by the police, Marion County Prosecutor, neighbors, or personal observation to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that one or more of the above enumerated crimes were probably committed on the premises during the term of this Lease. Tenant hereby agrees that a default under this subsection shall not be curable and that Landlord's determination that a crime was probably committed shall be irrefutable.

- 24. DEFAULTS BY TENANT. Each of the following shall constitute a material event of default under this Lease:

- (a) Nonpayment of rent, late charges, and any and all other amounts which may become due to the Landlord from the Tenant within five (5) business days following the fifteenth day of the month;
- (b) Failure of Tenant to perform any duty set forth in this Lease;
- (c) Any action by Tenant which is prohibited by this Lease;
- (d) Failure of Tenant to cure any damage to the premises or to take such action or to refrain from taking such action as shall be necessary to cure continuing violations of laws, rules, ordinances, or regulations of governmental authorities or applicable subdivision or condominium governing committees;
- (e) Abandonment of the premises before the end of the term of this Lease; and
- (f) Any misrepresentation in this Lease Application or other data executed or provided by a Tenant or Guarantor.

- 25. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of any event of default which shall remain uncured, Landlord shall have all rights, powers, and privileges contained in this Lease and at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) The right to declare this Lease immediately terminated, to reenter the premises, and to remove Tenant and Tenant's possessions; in such event, Tenant shall peacefully surrender possession of the premises to Landlord; and,
- (b) The right to recover from Tenant any and all past due and accrued rent, future rent through the end of the current Lease term, and all costs and expenses of returning the premises to good rentable condition and reletting the premises to a satisfactory replacement Tenant; and (Savings Clause: Eviction of Tenant for a breach of this Lease shall not release Tenant from liability for rent payment for the balance of the term of the lease. Nylen v. Park Doral Apartments, 535 N.E.2d 178, 181 (Ind.App. 1989), trans. denied.),
- (c) The right to pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available to Landlord under the laws and judicial decisions of the State of Indiana.

Under no circumstance shall Landlord be liable to Tenant for damages to personal property or reputation of Tenant which may be caused by eviction of Tenant following a judicial termination that Landlord is entitled to possession of the premises. Tenant shall be responsible to Landlord and Landlord's agents and judicial officers, if appropriate, for payment of all costs and expenses of eviction and removal and storage of personal property of Tenant or others. In all events, Tenant shall be responsible to Landlord for payment of any or all court costs and fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, reasonable collection costs, and costs and expenses of litigation and repossession, without limitation, which shall be incurred by Landlord following an event of default by Tenant. Tenant agrees that any third party who moves and/or stores Tenant's possessions shall acquire a warehouseman's lien on those stored possessions and, if they are not timely reclaimed, the warehouseman may sell the subject goods in payment of the storage costs, transfer costs, and all other related fees and costs. The Tenant further agrees to pay $ 100.00 for each eviction filed, plus an hourly labor charge of $ 30.00 for processing the eviction, in addition to the above expenses and fees.

In addition to all other charges stated herein, Tenant further agrees to pay interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month, or eighteen percent (18%) annual percentage rate, in arrears, on any amounts which shall remain due and payable to Landlord more than fifteen (15) days and upon any amounts which shall become due and payable by Tenant to Landlord following an event of default from and after the date such amounts shall become due.

Any and all amounts which shall become due Landlord from Tenant, whether before or after an event of default, shall be deemed to be "rent" and Tenant shall be liable for payment thereof in accordance with this Lease or within five (5) business days following written demand for payment by Landlord, whichever shall occur earlier.

26. ABANDONMENT:

- (a) For purposes hereof, "abandonment" of the premises shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of Tenant to personally occupy any part of the premises for any part of a continuous period of ten (10) or more calendar days, during which time there exists one or more other defaults under this Lease. In addition, "abandonment" of personal property shall be deemed to include leaving such property on the premises (i) for a period of more than twenty-four (24) hours after the Tenant shall have vacated or abandoned the premises, (ii) at any time after the Tenant shall have been evicted from the premises, or (iii) at any time after the date set forth by a court of competent jurisdiction in an order for removal of Tenant and/or Tenant's personal property from the premises, whichever shall be earliest. All property which has been abandoned shall be known as "abandoned property."
- (b) In the event of abandonment of the premises or personal property, Landlord shall have the right, but not the duty, in Landlord's sole discretion, to take possession of such abandoned property and cause it to be stored by Landlord at Tenant's sole expense, conveyed to third parties, and/or discarded. During any period in which abandoned property found on the premises shall remain in the premises or otherwise in the possession of the Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord (i) a storage and handling fee of $30.00 per day (the "Handling Fee") or (ii) such greater amount as shall be reasonably incurred by Landlord in storing, moving, insuring, handling, selling, and protecting such abandoned property and in defending Landlord from claims by Tenant related to the abandoned property, including attorneys' fees and all costs of litigation ("Handling Costs").
- (c) Tenant may not be liable for the Handling Fee if Tenant relinquishes in writing all claims to such abandoned property and authorize its disposal by Landlord, in which case Landlord shall be entitled only to the Handling Costs. In the event that after notice Tenant shall not relinquish all claims to the abandoned property and shall refuse to remove the abandoned property from the premises or Landlord's possession, or in the event the Tenant cannot be found within 10 calendar days with reasonable effort by Landlord, then Landlord shall have the option to elect to deliver the abandoned property to third parties free of any claims by Tenant or to discard all of such abandoned property (retaining none thereof for the use of Landlord). In the event that the proceeds to Landlord from the sale of such abandoned property shall be less than the greater of the Handling Fee or the Handling Costs, Landlord shall have the right to add such shortage to the damages payable by Tenant to Landlord.
- (d) Tenant agrees that any third party who moves and/or stores such abandoned property shall acquire a warehouseman's lien thereon pursuant to Indiana Code Chapter 26-7-6 and, if they are not timely reclaimed, the warehouseman may sell the abandoned property in payment of the storage costs, transfer costs, and all other related fees and costs. To the extent permitted by law, Tenant hereby waives receipt of personal notice that the abandoned property is to be sold by the warehouseman and hereby agrees that the address for notice purposes set forth herein shall be the address for personal service of notice under Indiana Code Section 26-7-8-2(b). Any such warehouseman is herein agreed by the parties to be an intended third party beneficiary of this section 27.

27. HOLDOVER TENANT. Nothing contained herein or in this Lease shall be deemed to authorize any holding over of possession by Tenant after the expiration of the original term of this Lease. In the event of an unauthorized holding over by Tenant, the possession of Tenant shall be deemed to be that of a trespasser and the liquidated damages payable by Tenant during such holdover period shall be equal to two hundred percent (200%) of the rent described in this Lease, prorated on a daily basis. In addition, such holdover Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for all expenses, payments, charges, obligations, liabilities, remedies, and duties described in this Lease and shall be deemed to have indemnified Landlord from any and all loss, costs, or other liabilities which Landlord may incur by reason of such holding over, including liability of Landlord to other Tenants who shall have executed a written lease for rental of the premises, marketing expenses, legal fees, court costs, litigation expenses, moving expenses, etc. Tenant shall be responsible to Landlord and Landlord's agents and judicial officers, if appropriate, for payment of all costs and expenses of eviction and the removal and storage of personal property of Tenant. Tenant agrees that any third party who moves and/or stores Tenant's possessions shall acquire a warehouseman's lien on those stored possessions and, if they are not timely reclaimed, the warehouseman may sell the subject goods in payment of the storage costs, transfer costs, and all other related fees and costs.

28. INDEMNIFICATION AND RELEASE: Landlord may not be held liable to tenant or Tenant's guest(s) or occupant(s) for any damages or losses to person or property caused by other persons, including theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, or other crimes. Tenant assumes the risk of all personal injury and for all damage to or loss of personal property (furniture, jewelry, clothing, etc.) from fire, water leak, rain, hail, ice, snow, smoke, lightning, wind, explosion, interruption of utilities, or other "acts of God" unless such injury, loss or damage is caused by negligence of Landlord. Tenant hereby indemnifies, agrees to hold harmless Landlord, and agrees to protect and defend Landlord from and against any and all damages, claims, and liabilities arising from or connected with Tenant's control or use of the premises. Tenant's obligations to Landlord shall include any litigation commenced by or against Tenant by a third party who names or joins Landlord in such litigation. This indemnification shall include, without limitation, all of Landlord's costs, fees, and expenses which shall be incurred by Landlord in connection with prosecuting or defending any such claim, action, or proceeding. Tenant does hereby release Landlord from any and all liability for any accident, damage, or injury which may be caused to any person or property, including the property of Tenant, on or about the premises, including any damages which may be caused by bursting or leaking of pipes.

29. QUIET ENJOYMENT: Except as set forth in this Lease, Landlord covenants and agrees that if the Tenant shall perform all of the covenants and agreements herein stipulated to be performed on the part of the Tenant, the Tenant shall at all times during the term hereof have the peaceful and quiet enjoyment and possession of the premises without any manner of hindrance from the Landlord or any person lawfully claiming through the Landlord.

- 30. NOTICES AND MANAGEMENT: Any notice which Landlord may be required to give may be served in person or by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to Tenant at the premises or such other places as may be designated by Tenant in writing from time to time. ### Notice of Tenant Rights and Responsibilities

If you lease a residential rental unit, you have the following legal rights as a tenant:

- You have the right to a safe and livable home. This means a rental unit that:
  - Is secure, with doors and windows that can be locked
  - Has working plumbing, hot water, heating, and at least one smoke detector
  - Has functioning electricity without unsafe wiring or outlets.
- Your landlord must tell you about any known lead-based paint or hazards.
- Your landlord must keep any common areas and elevators in clean, usable condition.
- You have the right to basic privacy in your home. This generally means:
  - Your landlord cannot lock you out without a court order
  - Your landlord cannot enter your unit without notice, except in emergencies.
- You have the right to be free from discrimination based on your race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, national origin, age, color, disability, ancestry, familial status, veteran status, or an expunged criminal conviction.
- Your landlord must return your security deposit within 45 days of you moving out, if you leave the unit in good order and give a forwarding address in writing. Your landlord must itemize any deductions from the full deposit amount. You may dispute those deductions.
- You may have additional rights if you or someone in your household has been the victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, or stalking, and a civil protection order or criminal no-contact order has been entered.

You also have certain responsibilities as a tenant:

- Indiana law requires that tenants pay rent. You should not stop paying rent, or other amounts you owe under your lease, to force your landlord to make repairs or provide upkeep on your rental unit without consulting with a lawyer first.
- You and your guests must use the systems, appliances, and features of your rental unit and common areas of your building safely and reasonably.
- You must comply with your rental agreement and your landlord's other property rules.
- You must keep the smoke detector in your rental unit in working order.
- You must give your landlord notice when your unit needs repairs, and you must give your landlord access at reasonable times to make those repairs.
- You can't damage or deface your unit or its fixtures, and when you move away, you must leave your unit in good condition, apart from normal wear and tear.

To learn more about your rights and responsibilities or to seek legal help, call the Tenant Information Hotline at (317) 327-2228. The Hotline operates from the hours of 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM on weekdays .

These rights and responsibilities are yours by law. Your landlord cannot retaliate against you for asking about or exercising your rights, including contacting the Health Department or calling the Tenant Information Hotline.

Your landlord is required to ensure that you review and sign this Notice, to provide you a renewed Notice if and when you renew your lease, and to keep your signed Notice on file for as long as you remain a tenant.
