A Word to the Fore: Lucy's Lucky Seven

As time flows by, vintage customs are surfacing more often at flea markets and estate sales. The group at right was photographed at a Texas flea market in August 2015...and what happened next was a heartwarming happening guaranteed to beat winter's chill!

Here's hobbyist Lucy Kusluch with the details:

I try to go to the Weatherford, TX "First Monday" flea market when I can. I rarely find anything, but you never know, so I go anyway.

Went down the one aisle and saw them on the vendor's table. First thought was "how did she get those?" as it was clear she wasn't a hobbyist. Asked prices, she wanted $10 each. Not bad but I didn't have that much on me. But I so wanted to save them- the thought of a kid PLAYING with them..... *shudder*

I asked if I could take a pic, so I could post it to the [Facebook Vintage Model-Horse-Custs] group. She was cool with that. I posted and continued strolling the grounds.

Well, the "I WANT!" came fast. Many people wanted them.

I went back and offered $55 for the lot. It was literally all I had. She thought hard and agreed. SAVED!

And as I walked to my truck, I told them they were safe, back in collector hands and not to worry.

Yeah, I'm weird like that. :D

With Lucy's help, the lucky seven all found homes with vintage enthusiasts. Although their original owner remains unknown and most were unsigned, a few of their artists have been able to be identified. Three of the seven even travelled in style to BreyerWest 2016 to take part in its epic A Good Vintage contest, and recently entered the third leg of the VCMEC Online World Championships!

This was all thanks to a caring hobbyist being in the right place at the right time. May wayward vintage customs, and the collectors who crave them, all be so lucky this year!

-Sparky C.

This April 3 will mark the passage of 25 years since the world lost Marney J. Walerius, godmother of the model horse hobby.

The dynamo who powered the annual Model Horse Congress live show, and long associated with Breyer, Marney had a vast collection of both original finish and customized horses. Its dispersal after her passing brought her greatest model treasures to grieving hobbyists grateful for a keepsake.

Next issue we'll feature some of those now-vintage customs that hailed from Marney's herd! If you're lucky enough to have one (or more!) and would like it to appear, please send its photo and any thoughts you'd like to share about it to us at vcmecmodelhorsereview@gmail.com by May 1. Thanks so much for helping preserve memories!

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champs were invited to share their thoughts about these superb vintage customs. Here's what they said!

WICKENDEN OSPREY

Grey Welsh Sec. B stallion, CM by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derreseau in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Wow oh wow, am so happy for Osprey, the 'king' of my vintage crew!

"In the mid-'80s, I learned his name fast from results in the Big N' Little Club for ponies and drafters, where he was dominant for Liz Bouras. I got to see him at her place once, and as she recalled some of his exploits, I remember thinking how neat it would be, and what a responsibility it would also be, to have a horse with that kind of history.

"I never forgot that kindly-looking king, and a quarter-century later, when Liz advertised that her collection was up for offers, Wickenden Osprey and another vintage CM I loved, Kandu Koho (a Beth Peart/Nancy Strowger collaboration), were the first ones I asked after. What a thrill when she decided to part with them! Both needed some restoration after years in storage, but Meghann Hoscheid did a fantastic job, and now Osprey and Koho overlook the rest of my gang, in a little glass-fronted 'stable' all their own atop the tallest cabinet."

WING'D JAGUAR

Blue roan blanket Appaloosa Sport Horse, CM by Sue Sudekum in 1979
1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Sue Sudekum introduced us to this beauty last issue! She adds about his pattern and name, "He's not based on any horse in particular. Since he was 'sired' by my Hollywood Jaguar, had to keep a big cat name in there, and since I was big into Sword & Sorcery back then, that's probably where the 'Wing'd' came from, lol!"

MUSTAFA BEY

Bloody-shoulder grey Arabian stallion, CM by Julie Froelich in 1979
1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Corky Visminas writes, "The Classic Arabian Stallion is one of the most versatile and well-sculpted models Breyer has ever offered, and Mustafa Bey, customized by Julie Froelich in 1979, is one of my all-time favorite customs done on this mold. He's also proof that 'fake fur' can make an excellent mane and tail when well-handled. VCMEC is the only venue this veteran is being shown in, and I'm so pleased that he's done so well!"

THE PIED VIPER

Black overo Paint/Spanish Barb-cross stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1979
1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Liz Bouras gathered a breathtaking herd of Nancy Strowger's work, and when she parted with some a few years ago, I was thrilled to be able to acquire this fellow!"

"His mane and tail are sculpted from fine, stiffened thread, and have a fluid grace that nothing else I've seen can match. His photo can't do it justice at all, so am extra-tickled that he did well!!"

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Bay Hackney Horse gelding, CM by Beth Peart in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Last issue Beth Peart shared her thoughts about this epic creation. This time she writes, "I don't have much to add, but asked, and got a reply from Kathy Wells who commented, 'The first time I met Geisha he was part of a tandem hitch, one horse in front of the other. I had never seen that sort of hitch before and was thoroughly amazed by this. Your originality just blew me away.'

"I don't even remember that setup!"

"Good thing Kathy has a great memory. I don't, anymore. It's sort of surreal. It's like all this happened in another life that I remember in shreds like a dream. I am just happy I still have the horse."

"One day when I am better set up I might just try to make another similar one. Back in the day I had my dad's workshop to use. That's long gone, like my dad, and I live in a little shotgun-style house with no shed or garage, or even a workspace in the basement. Clearing a suitable spot will be a major project. I guess I had better get to it. :-)"

BLOODBATH HIGHWAY

Dun overo Paint/Mustang-cross gelding, CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Color and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Corky Visminas writes, "Often imitated but never duplicated, victim of an attempted kidnapping at the 1997 Model Horse Jamboree in California, the bronco who tried to buck off Mr. Bill at a live show, and the horse whose name has produced many a raised eyebrow or concerned glance in my direction, Bloodbath Highway is a Traditional-scale Black Beauty customized by Carol Williams in 1987."

"Although he arrived from Carol with his own custom-made bareback bronc rig, he's been shown in performance only very rarely--and he's always done surprisingly well in halter showing, even behaving as badly as he is!"

QUICK COMET

Bay Standardbred mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1983

1980s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Can't help but get teary-eyed about this! Quick Comet was a gift to me from Julie Froelich, and is a portrait model of the Standardbred pacing mare I grew up with. The model Comet was created three years after the real Comet retired from racing. Julie introduced me to model horse showing soon after, and I got such a charge out of being able to compete with the model Comet, was hooked on the hobby for good! And now we get to hit the showing together again!"

JAMIL MHURATT

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Res, Champion Color

Cheryl Ridge writes, "Breyer's Proud Arabian Mare and Proud Arabian Stallion were popular models with collectors in the 1980s and it is hardly surprising that Sarah Minkiewicz worked her magic on some of them in her early days of customizing.

"The first I had heard of Sarah was when I entered a photo show (late 1980s?) called the ELITE DECORATIONS REWORKERS REVIEW - Sarah was one of the entrants and new artist on the scene. I became smitten with 2 of the customs Sarah had entered - Jamil Mhuratt and Mon Nafa Rani.

"Even in the black and white printed results I could tell those horses were special and I guess you could say they became my holy grail. Jamil and his full sister Rani did well in that show - taking 1st and 2nd in the gray category (121 entries). Jamil also 1st in Halter Stallions (291 entries), 1st in Showmanship (299 entries), 2nd in Best Paint Job (576 entries) and 3rd in Judge's Choice (2068 entries).

"Letters between Sarah and myself were exchanged via snail mail from around early 1989. Sarah loved Jamil Mhuratt and Mon Nafa Rani too much and couldn't part with them but did promise to do me a grey Arab. However, a change in circumstances meant Sarah had to part with some of her beloved models and offered Mon Nafa Rani to me. By Christmas 1989 she was on her way to me in Australia. A dream come true.

"I later found out Jamil Mhuratt had gone to live with a penpal in Germany. I didn't think she would ever part with Jamil but secretly hoped she would offer him to me if the time came. Then around 10 years ago, in another dream come true, I was given the opportunity to buy Jamil Mhuratt. I was not even active in the hobby anymore but still I jumped at the opportunity to bring Jamil down under to Australia to be with his sister, Rani.

"Although Rani had been a top performer for me for years I don't believe Jamil was shown much - am actually not sure of his showing history. To me it would not matter though - I feel very fortunate to have some of Sarah's early work, to be able to admire the work which I believe is extraordinary for it's time. I know that Sarah spent hours grinding paint into these two using a dry brush method. Exquisite star dapples, veining and extra resculpting were typical of the attention to detail Sarah put into her work. Sarah also handmade the halters they are shown in.

"Thank you for the opportunity to provide a place where all these years later beautiful vintage models and their creators can receive exposure and admiration.

"P.S. I forgot to mention that for Jamil Mhuratt it has been 3 continents over 3 decades. Created in the USA then exported to Germany where he remained for quite a few years. Then finally off on a new journey to me in Australia in 2006. Jamil got to visit the USA and hang with his artist again when he needed to be returned to Sarah for some TLC! From 2008 he has remained in Australia with me and his sister - with no plans to go anywhere else for the moment!"

BOARDWALK JACK

Buckskin Quarter Horse stallion, CM by D'arry Jone Frank in 1987

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Sue Sudekum writes, "A big-time Holy Grail, I remember seeing him in ads in the MHSJ, including the one where he was for sale. No way could I afford that on my part-time Kelly Services salary, but doesn't cost anything to look. As fate would have it, later on I found myself making a mega-trade deal with HIS OWNER for HIMSELF. Ended up trading $300 worth of OF Breyers for one little customized H-R (and back in the mid-80's, $300 bought a LOT of OF Breyers!). Holy Grail obtained and coveted!"

"His creator, D'arry Jone Frank, literally cut apart an H-R Cutter and put him back together sans cowboy and saddle. He still sports his un-touched-up airbrush buckskin paint job, his original hair, and wears his original leather and felt shipping boots and head guard that he came with. Sadly this year I noticed cracks and filler lifting where the two halves were joined together, which saddens me to no end. But he'll always have a home in my curio cabinet with his H-R brothers and sisters.

"He's only been shown in halter; photo, live, and online and can hold his own against the youngsters in the show ring these days."

GOSSAMER WINGS

Grey Arabian mare CM by Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship

Please see last issue for owner Kirsten Wellman's thoughts on this great mare!

LAAG

Grey Standardbred stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1992

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Wow, so happy! Based on a photo that appeared in one of world champion pacer Laag's stud ads, Lisa Rivera (now Shepard) crafted a Breyer Morganglanz into this portrait model of one of my favorite Standardbreds! He predates Breyer's OF Laag by four years, and is loaded with details that the camera can't capture...for example, he has eye-lashes, and when viewed from the front, his lips are parted slightly for a glimpse of his teeth!

"Making for further fun is that his name is pronounced 'log,' leading to this parody of the 'Log' song from 'Ren & Stimpy' that ran in an ad I did for him in The Hobby Horse

News: 'Who rolls downstairs in search of your mares / (You might want to hide your dog) / He's sharp as a tack, so don't turn your back / He's Laag, Laag, Laag! / He's Laag, he's Laag, he's big, he's hefty, he's grey / He's Laag, he's Laag—look out, he's headed your way!'"

NIATROSS

Bay Standardbred stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "As a kid I idolized Niatross, the greatest Standardbred that ever lived—and was thrilled years later when Lisa Rivera (now Shepard) accepted the commission to create a portrait model of him. Rather than start with a Breyer Pacer or other Traditional sport-type model, she made something even more unique by customizing a Classic Kelso! Making this model all the more dear to me is the fact that his tail later gained some hair from the mane of the real Niatross, thanks to the kindness of Niatross' handlers when the champion came out of retirement to greet fans at The Red Mile in 1996."

SIGLAVY SEIKO

Grey Lipizzan stallion, CM by Julie Froelich in 1992

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Corky Visminas writes, "Julie Froelich customized a Legionario III into a handsome grey Lipizzan stallion in 1992 and offered him on her auction list under the pucky name Neopolitano Glace. I thought he looked more like a Siglavy-line Lipizzan, so changed his name accordingly. He's never been shown in performance, and has always been one of those relatively quiet horses that hangs out in the background--until VCMEC came along and gave him a chance to really shine!"

MARS FLASH

Dun overo Paint stallion, CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Doin' his daddy Naoto Nisei proud! It was years ago but I can still feel the excitement of being in time to get this CM Breyer Adios on one of Carol Williams' sales lists! He was still in progress, so I got to choose his color and pattern. Carol wrote me with an update, mentioning that she'd first painted him all in Mars Violet to make sure the remaking was smooth; the "Mars" part stuck in mind, and I wound up naming him after the sword weapon of an anime robot hero. Carol also mentioned that she'd decided to try something different, replacing his head with a ceramic head she cast from what would later become her RRQH1 sculpture! (He's one of two remakes she did this with; the other was a Stud Spider CM as a blue roan overo named Blue Jack Rio.)"
