

SPECIAL THEME I:

HISTORY OF PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIAL PRACTICE

Guest Editors: Adrian C. Brock and Johann Louw

CONTENTS

Introduction

Adrian C. Brock (University College Dublin)

Psychological practices and ideology: The South African case

Johann Louw (University of Cape Town) and Kurt Danziger (York University/University of Cape Town)

Curing the Dutch disease? The Disability Insurance Act (DIA) and the psychologization process in the Netherlands

Ruud Abma (Utrecht University)

The research relationship in English-language European psychology journals: Forty years of American investigative practice?

Richard Walsh-Bowers (Wilfrid Laurier University)

Is there a 'self' in self research? or, How measuring the self made it disappear

Scott Greer (University of Prince Edward Island)

Statistics and the art of legitimation: The strange case of 'nAch'

Adrian C. Brock (University College Dublin)

Mythologized history of psychology as social practice: The uses of 'environmentalist hegemony' narratives

Andrew Winston (University of Guelph)