STATE REP. JOHNNY SHAW TO SPEAK AT JMCAACC

POWER BREAKFAST ON MARCH 17TH

JACKSON, Tenn. (March 11, 2014) – State Rep. Johnny Shaw will be the featured speaker at the Power Breakfast on next Monday hosted by the Jackson Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce (JMCAACC). The Power Breakfast on Legislative Affairs will take place at 7:30 a.m. on Monday, March 17 at Royal Reed's, 507 North Royal St.

Rep. Shaw will speak about upcoming bills and key issues facing the citizens of Tennessee. A former member of the Hardeman County Commission, he was elected in 2000 to serve District 80 in the Tennessee House of Representatives. He is CEO and co-owner of Shaw Broadcasting Company which operates WBOL-AM and WOJG-FM in Bolivar. He began his career in broadcasting as DJ at WBOL. Moreover, he has been pastor of St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Stanton for more than 30 years.

The Jackson Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce (www.jmcaacc.org) began hosting the Power Breakfast in 2010 as a monthly learning and networking opportunities for current and aspiring entrepreneurs and business owners and other interested parties. The sessions are generally held on the third Monday of the month. There is no charge for the meeting. Coffee and muffins will be provided.

The Chamber office is located at 351-C North Royal in Jackson, TN 38301. For more information, call 731-424-2030 or email aachamber731@yahoo.com.
