Sunday Meditation

Who among us has not felt the disparity between the power of the first Church and what we experience today? Our forebears of the Restoration Movement thought they were restoring the "New Testament Church," but it was only the outward form they partly restored, not its effective essence. The first Church was very supernatural. By contenting ourselves with the absence of miracles and miraculous gifts, we reproduced a powerless shell of the Church, not the real thing. For decades we virtually ignored the Holy Spirit, and even now we're afraid to give Him freedom among us, lest we fall into excess. For fear of wild-fire, we settle for no fire. We've stayed safely in shallow water, where we've labored long and caught little. Perhaps it's time we launched out into the deep. Though there's risk there, only in deep water will we fill our nets and imitate the supernatural original. All for Jesus, Richard

HALLOWEEN PARTY

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The children will re-join us after the service during the announcements.
