Pets give us companionship and unconditional love. Our relationships with them are very special. For many of us, our companion animal is a member of the family, and when the bond we share is broken, the resulting sense of loss and grief is as real and sometimes as overwhelming as when we lose a relative or human friend.

The first step in coping with your grief is to acknowledge your feelings. Grieving the loss of a friend or companion is a sign of the love that existed between you. At Gulfside Hospice's Pet Loss Support Group, you can share your feelings with others who are going through a similar experience.

Gulfside's new Pet Loss Support Group is facilitated by Shelley Schneider, LCSW and Chaplain Mike Merritt.
