It Is Cultural War

The Bible tells us in Judges, Chapter 1: "Neither did Mannasseh drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out."

"Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them. Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries....And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:" (Judges 1:27,28,29,30,34)

You will remember that Moses and the children of Israel who came out of Egypt were always bickering and complaining. They had been slaves in Egypt and they came to like that status. The authorities saw to it that they had food, clothing and housing. In the wilderness with Moses they suffered from a lack of food and all of the other amenities given them when they worked for the Egyptian government.

So that generation was not allowed to go across the Jordan and into the promised land. It took one generation to become trim and obedient freedom fighters. This new generation loved freedom, property and liberty.

It was the same way during the early years here in the United States before the Revolution. The inhabitants were split into two groups, those who wanted the King of England to continue to look after them, tax them, work them and protect them with the world famous "Red Coats." The other group was like the children of Israel who went over the River Jordan. They were freedom fighters. They were trim, willing to work. They were obedient to the cause of freedom and liberty. They wanted to determine the fate of their families, not the King of England.

There was a cultural war going on then. It was the culture of Europe's Nobility, Parliament, Ecclesiastical Commissions and peasant servitude versus the culture of individual freedom of choice. It was freedom as to where they would live, how to provide a life for their family, to read what they wanted, and with the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the Bible being the system of government. They were to be able to do what they wanted just as long as they didn't do damage to anyone else. If they did, they were responsible for their actions. There were to be no regulations, no Executive Orders, no local Commission rules.

History repeated itself throughout the Bible. We would become freedom fighters, those who wanted the freedom and liberty that God gave us. We would then become contented with the thought that nothing would cause us to lose that freedom. But without continually fighting for that freedom we would lose it. We would go into bondage. It would start all over again.

Look around us! We are at the bottom. It's like being down deep in the water and looking up, seeing only a dim light. It's like being in a bird cage, not being able to escape and with nothing to do but smell the stink!

God does not permit a vacuum. Something or someone always rushes in to fill the void. We were given the chance to either live in a free environment that our ancestral freedom fighters gave us or let apathy take us back into the vacuum of bondage. We chose the latter.

There is a cultural war going on now. A new culture will fill that vacuum in the very near future, all because we listened to lies from the governments at all levels, the schools at all levels, the media at all levels, and, sadly, the churches. There is only the remnant left, but it is enough, IT IS ENOUGH!! There was only a remnant in 1776 and so it is today.

Charlton Heston

The actor Charlton Heston, who was the star of many Bible-oriented movies, knows we are in a cultural war. Mr. Heston was recently elected President of the National Rifle Association. He was born in 1924 and he remembers a happier time. He can compare those years with life today. He made a presentation to the Free Congress Foundation which reveals this new cultural war and his remarks follow:

"A cultural war is raging across our land-storming our values, assaulting our freedoms, killing our self-confidence in who we are and what we believe. (Mr. Heston then asked those present who owned a gun to raise their hand.)

"I wonder how many of you own guns but chose not to raise your hand? How many of you considered revealing your conviction about a constitutional right, but then thought better of it?

"If so, you are a victim of the cultural war being waged against traditional American freedom of beliefs and ideas. You have been assaulted and robbed of the courage of your convictions. Your pride in who you are and what you believe in has been ridiculed, ransacked and plundered! It may be a war without a bullet or bloodshed, but with just as much liberty lost: You and your country are less free!

"Because you choose to own guns-affirmed by no less the the Bill of Rights-you embrace a view at odds with the cultural war lords. If that is the outcome of cultural war, and you are the victims, I can only ask the obvious question. What will become of the right itself? Or other rights not deemed acceptable by the thought police? What other truth in your heart will you disavow with your hand?

"Rank-and-file Americans wake up every morning, increasingly bewildered and confused at why their views make them lesser citizens. The message gets through, Heaven help the God fearing, law-abiding, Caucasian, middle-class Protestant-or even worse, evangelical Christian, Midwestern or Southern-or even worse, rural, apparently straight-or even worse, admitted heterosexuals, gun-owning-or even worse, NRA-Card-carrying, average working stiff-or even worse, male working stiff-because, not only don't you count, you are a down-right obstacle to social progress. Your voice deserves a lower decibel level, your opinion is less enlightened, your media access is insignificant, and frankly, mister, you need to wake up, wise up, and learn a little something from your new-America and until you do, would you mind shutting up?

"That is why you didn't raise your hand. That's how cultural war works. That's what happens when a generation of media, educators, entertainers, and politicians, led by a willing president, decide the America they were born into isn't good enough any more. So they contrive to change it through the cultural warfare of class distinction. There are ruins around the world that were once the smug centers of small-minded, arrogant elitism. It appears that rather than evaporate in the flash of a split atom, we may succumb to a divided culture.

"The Constitution was handed down to guide us by a bunch of wise old dead white guys who invented our country. Now some flinch when I say that. Why? It's true. They were white guys. So were most of the guys that died in Lincoln's name opposing slavery in the 1860's. So why should I be ashamed of white guys? Why is 'Hispanic pride' or 'black pride' a good thing, while 'white pride' conjures shaved heads and white hoods? Why was the Million Man March on Washington celebrated as progress, while the Promise Keepers March on Washington was greeted with suspicion and ridicule? I'll tell you why: Cultural warfare.

"But your don't see many other Hollywood luminaries speaking out on this, do you? It's not because there aren't any. It's because they can't afford the heat. They dare not speak up for fear of CNN or the IRS or SAG or ATF or NBC or even WJC. It saps the strength of our country when the personal price is simply too high to stand up for what you believe in. Today, speaking with the courage of your conviction can be so costly, the price of principle can be so high, that legislators won't lead and citizens can't follow, and so there is no army to fight back. That's cultural warfare.

"Mainstream America is counting on you to draw your sword, and fight for them. These people have precious little time and resources to battle misguided Cinderella attitudes, propaganda of the homosexual coalition, the feminists who preach that it is a divine duty for women to hate men, blacks who raise a militant fist with one hand while they seek preference with the other, and all the New-Age apologists for juvenile crime, who see roving gangs as a means of youthful expression, sex as a means of adolescent merchandizing, violence as a form of entertainment for impressionable minds, and gun bans as a means to lord-knows-what. We have reached that point in time when our national social policy originates on Oprah. I say it's time to pull the plug.

"Americans should not have to go to war every morning for their values. They already go to war for their families. They fight to hold down a job, raise responsible kids, make their payments, keep gas in the car, put food on the table and clothes on their backs, and still save a little to live their final days in dignity. They prefer the America they built-where you could pray without feeling naive, love without being kinky, sing without profanity, be white without feeling guilty, own a gun without shame and raise your hand without apology. They are the critical masses who find themselves under seige and long for you to get some guts, stand on principle and lead them to victory in this cultural war." End of Mr. Heston's remarks.

We say to ourselves, "How could this happen to us?" The last two issues of the Intelligence Newsletter gave us some of the answers to that question. However, the way cultural war works and the perpetrators of the current war need to be discussed.

The book, The Natural Law of Race Relations, Scott-Townsend Press, 1995, written by Laszlo F. Thomay gives us some rules to understand when we speak of cultural war. A book review was written by Fr. James Thornton and posted on the internet. It can be found at the website titled cofcc.org. Mr. Thomay gives us some primary differences between philosophies of those who create cultural war. He says, "Leftists (liberals, socialists, Marxists, etc.) believe that vigorous intervention will change human nature fundamentally, that it will create a 'New Man' in other words. Conservative men of the Right, on the other hand, accept human nature as it is, knowing that, by and large, it will not change. Egalitarianism, along with the modern welfare state and its many facets, are theoretically designed to provide all persons with a 'level playing field' and certain material necessities, which should bring an end to conflict because the basic premise is false. The fact that crime in this country has increased nearly 600% since the federal government began its most ambitious redistribution and social engineering schemes in the early 1960s confirms the utter bankruptcy of the liberal policies of misery, conflict, and strife, while the policies of true conservatives lead to order and harmony."

Mr. Thomay discusses the criteria for determining a natural law of relations between races, cultures, and so forth. He then examines sixteen cases from around the world in which relations have been either successful or unsuccessful. He analyzes the data and sets down when he believes to constitute the natural law in such cases. "That law is, to put it concisely, that people of different races, nationalities, languages, or cultures cannot live peaceably and harmoniously in the same national territory if the minority exceeds a certain proportion of the total population. Strife will also result if minority groups aggressively accentuate qualities that mark them off from the majority (e.g., language, dress, behavior, etc.) or appear too militant in promoting their own cultural peculiarities at the expense of the majority culture".

When you couple that natural law which we know to be the laws of God, with the undisputed fact that other cultures are being forced upon this once Christian Republic in such huge numbers then a cultural war is absolutely assured.

We must not believe that the United States is alone in this current cultural war. The cultural war now raging is thought to be, at least by the perpetrators, to be the last one. It is a cultural war against all Western European white people. The intentions are to destroy all of the Christian culture and to do that is to destroy all of the white culture because in that culture is the home of our faith. The war also rages in England, France, Germany, South Africa, Rhodesia, wherever White Christian Culture is dominant.

We have in our library the book The Camp of the Saints by Jean Raspail. This is the story of the massive forced immigration into France from the North African countries. This immigration has been forced upon France just as other cultures have been forced on the United States.

The problems of forced immigration in Germany is similar to that here in the United States with the exception of one very important point. That point will be best expressed by reading from a booklet entitled "The Genocide of the German People-An Appeal."

"What you read here is the absolute, God's honest truth. In spite of a free press, very few Americans realize what is transpiring in the heart of Europe. The facts in this brochure are not being dealt with by the American media because it is not in the interest of the ruling establishment of the United States that they become widely known.

"Nearly one hundred thousand American soldiers are still stationed on German soil more than 50 years after the German Wehrmacht capitulated at the end of World War II. While it is alleged that the Americans are there as 'friends' and 'allies.' and that together the United States Army and the vassal German Bundeswehr cooperate in preserving the peace in Europe and elsewhere, those in the know admit that it is one of the duties of the U.S. forces 'to keep the Germans in line.'

"But what is meant by 'keeping the Germans in line?' Most of all, to prevent the German people from reasserting its sovereignty, independence and freedom, and from resurrecting the traditions of honesty, decency, thrift, discipline, loyalty, honor and sacrifice that had been the hallmarks of the Germans for a thousand years. And, not least, allied bayonets are on Reich soil in order to keep the Germans from fighting against the criminal transgressions by a tiny ruling clique which is described in this brochure." You may obtain a copy of this appeal to the German Government by the people of Germany from GANPAC, PO Box 11124, Pensacola, FL 32524. FAX (850) 478-4993.

We Americans have not as yet been told that there is a force of 100,000 UN troops here (however, there are strong indications that there are). However, we are being mesmerized by the most efficient media the world has ever known. Thus, the American people are still "sleeping" contentedly.

Of special interest to us here in the United States with respect to our cultural war, a portion of the German Criminal Code is included in that booklet. Relative to Genocide it says this: "Murder is a crime, and usually deserves the most severe punishment. This is also true for genocide. Whosoever has the intention to destroy, wholly or in part, a recognizable national, ethnic, racial or religious group, and in the process, 1. Kills members of this group, 2. Causes great bodily and mental harm to same, 3. Places conditions upon this group with the end result that it is totally or partly annihilated, 4. Creates conditions which prevent births in this group, 5. Places children of this group by force in other groups (so that they lose their identity), shall be punished with a life sentence in prison." End of quotes. Germany does not have a death sentence which, in the United States, would be the appropriate penalty.

The end results of cultural war destroys ethnic, racial, and religious groups (Christianity in our case). It causes great bodily and mental harm to same. It causes conditions which totally or partly annihilate the group (White Americans are leaving the United States by the tens of thousands).

The cultural war in the United States has caused white women to abort their children or to decide not to have children because of this cultural war. They refuse to raise children where their culture is destroyed. The census of the white population has remained rather constant for years.

The cultural war has forced the busing of children from one ethnic neighborhood to that of the white neighborhoods. The identity of our children is very rapidly being lost. Our young boys are wearing shorts with the crotches down to the knees. Their haircuts are foreign to our culture. Their language is tantamount to gibberish (rapid, inarticulate talk, unintelligible chatter, jargon). Our young women are marrying those of other cultures. Our young men have no manliness and so many have totally capitulated.

History has shown us that cultural wars have always been conducted using somewhat the same technique. The general migration of people from one area to another where families move in and establish a community in a foreign region is the beginning. The process of communicating with relatives and friends "back home" brings about the desire for additional families to make the move. There have always been associated with these moves the incentives of good soil, plentiful water, a ready market for production. There has always been a need for people with special qualifications to create a new community within an original. This has been especially so with the European Caucasian. Because of his accepted special qualifications on technical capabilities, creativity, productivity, work ethic, etc., the entire world has welcomed him.

But the situation is a vastly different one now. Whenever a mass migration is made now it is for other reasons entirely. The most prevalent reason that is advertised in the media, the government and the churches is to provide a haven for "their wretched masses." This is not a Biblically approved reason and the passages in the Book of Judges quoted above confirms that.

Anyone capable of cause and effect reasoning will realize that exceeding the numbers of rational immigration standards will result in the host being destroyed along with the parasite. How can that possibly be of help to anyone?

So the current cultural war raging in the United States, along with that in England, France, Germany and all of the other European derived countries, has to be intentionally created for another reason. What is that reason?

The answer to that is best explained by a well known leader in the movement creating the cultural wars. From the book titled "Racial Programme for the Twentieth Century" by Israel Cohen we read this. "We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the darker races, that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party. In America, we will aim for subtle victory while inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negro. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige the Negroes will be able to intermarry with the whites and will begin the process that will deliver America to our cause."

In the book Inside the New American Underground by the Frenchman Illiya Langlois (pronounced Lang-wah), we find the following, "The NAACP was founded in 1909 by Jews. The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) was created in 1913 by the Jewish Masonic B'nai B'rith, to fight racial injustice. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was revised by the Masons in 1915 (we must have a boogie man). Hugo Black, Supreme Court Justice, member of the Ku Klux Klan, and thirty-third degree Mason wrote the powerful 1947 'wall of separation between church and state' decision which began America's process of 'uprooting and annihilating Christianity.' And in 1920, Roger Baldwin created ACLU, the foremost advocate of the racial reapportionment of America's voting districts to achieve a desired Congress.

"Other formations of this century were the Federal Reserve in 1913, the international bank in 1930, world bank in 1946. In 1929, the private Bank of the United States claimed insolvency and created the crash of 1929 and the depression of the 1930's. When it came time to balance the books at the Bank of the United States, they paid over ninety cents on the dollar, hardly a reason to destroy the nations economy, unless that was its purpose. In 1933, FDR asked Congress for War Powers to fight the depression, calling it an economic emergency. They did, and ever since, we have been living under 'Martial Law' called 'Emergency Powers Act.' This was a legal maneuver around the Constitution. Britain is also under a declared martial law, which is where we got the idea. Their excuse is that there is a perpetual attempt to overthrow the British Empire." End of quotes.

Returning to Laszlo Thomay's book on the Natural Law of Race Relations. These "Natural Laws" are simply man's term for God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Laszlo writes very fluently and authoritatively on the problems that always come as a result of breaking God's Laws. The Bible is very clear about God's intentions for all of His creatures on earth. With respect to the civilizations of the earth, He sets forth their bounds in the first eleven chapters of Genesis.

He showed the conflict that is still raging throughout the world in Genesis three. In that chapter He describes how a non-Adamic person tries to persuade Adam and Eve that the Laws (Natural Laws as used by Laszlo) were not important and we all can determine the rules by ourselves. Adam and Eve were severely punished for that discretion. The same applies today. We will always be punished for not obeying those Laws.

In Genesis 6 we did it all over again. We tried to mix it all up. This time, God was more firm still in His Judgment. He simply created a flood in the area which destroyed all of Adamic man except for Noah and his family. In Chapter 10:5 he divided the land, "By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations." In that passage, God separated out the people according to their own customs and language.

But, people being people, they still wanted to do it their own way. In Genesis 11 is the story of the Tower of Babel. "And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

"And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth." (Gen. 11:1-9).

This seemingly simple command by God seems to be the one great weakness of all of us. We can't get over the idea that since all blood is red everyone is exactly like "peas in a pod." It has been tried over and over and over again throughout history. And it has never worked. Just because in our own modern times it has been several hundred years since the start of the world-wide British Empire, we tend to believe that this time it will work.

Many believe that the British Empire has fallen. No, not hardly. It is just not called that anymore. We now have the world-wide economic market. The system is the same. Now we simply farm out the manufacturing of goods in the countries where resources and cheap labor are plentiful and we just add up our profits on the stock market through the multi-national companies.

The end result is still a cultural war. We travel to their country. We mix with them, live with them, interbreed with them. They come here and buy up our land. They mix with us, live with us, interbreed with us. Very few even recognize a problem because their stocks keep going up!

It is rightfully said that laws, customs, mores and religions are first established in the market place. As an economic market is established, the national laws, both social and legal, follow.

Early America was nothing but another colony of Britain. The only difference was that we, as a people, came here to be free, to be independent, to have liberty in our lives. Then, just as now, there were two camps in the colony's thinking. The one camp was those whose allegiance remained with King George. The second camp was those who came for freedom.

But it wasn't quite that simple. Those who were loyal to Britain did everything they could to destroy these upstarts who "crossed the Jordan."

The Revolution had been won and our Constitution had been ratified, along with the Bill of Rights. Then the War of 1812 again exposed this hatred for those "freedom fighters." The so-called Essex Junto (English loyalists) openly and shamelessly sabotaged the war effort of the new United States. They tried to destroy the recruitment procedures and also sabotaged the troop deployment. They openly threatened those who were working for the efforts of this country. These are all symptoms of a cultural war.

President James Madison

President Madison mentioned this in his Second Inaugural Address of March 4, 1813 when he said, "Now we find them, in further contempt of the modes of honorable warfare, supplying the place of a conquering force by attempts to disorganize our political society, to dismember our confederated Republic."

The War of 1812 was won by the United States, so we are taught. But was it? Could that war have been nothing but a battle, within a much greater war, that has been ongoing ever since "the shot heard round the world?" We believe so and that war is a cultural war, a war to destroy the European White culture.

One might say that the perpetrators were white! True enough. But we have always had those whose god was power and money. We have always had the 30 pieces of silver of but another Judas.

The Civil War really had little to do with the slavery question. Again, there is always the "boogie-man." The Black slaves of the south were tools in the much larger battle and they are still tools. We must remember, it was the King of England who forced the African people upon America. Again, as we have reported in past Intelligence Newsletters, England had been jointly run ever since Oliver Cromwell. Remember, it was an agreement between Manasseh-ben-Israel of Amsterdam and Oliver Cromwell where it was agreed that Jewish money and English Nobility would rule the world. Who is it who established the United Nations?

Continuing with the Civil War and its part in the cultural war. It was John Calhoun, who in 1837, spoke of this poorly defined term "Abolitionism." Abolition is not about slavery. Abolition is about the fight between two polar-opposite concepts of culture.

The Egalitarian-liberal group was being funded by an up-state New York multi-millionaire named Gerrit Smith. Gerrit Smith had been partners with John Jacob Astor, the totally disloyal hater of America and its freedom loving bunch of "white-trash." Gerrit Smith donated $8,000,000 to the abolitionists William Loyd Garrison and John Brown, the two hot-heads who did the English nobilities dirty work. They would use the slavery issue to bring the cultural war to what they hoped was their victory.

We pray that we won't need to repeat the misery and massive bloodshed that occurred in that war. The people of European culture are slow to realize that a cultural war is being perpetrated against them. It must be said though, that when the European White Culture finally accepts the reality, it is the most vicious, bloodiest, of all the wars ever fought. We must add, that cultural war, which was so greatly manifested in the Civil War, is not over yet. Our minds are only now being opened to this truth.

God, in all of His Omnipotence has His own systems. It is true that He is involved in man's affairs. In general, He has two ways of dealing with our actions. In everything we do, God either works in a Providential manner or He acts in a Judgmental manner. Sometimes it can be for both reasons. When He acts Providentially, it is as a blessing because we obeyed Him. When He acts in a Judgmental manner, it is because we failed and it is sometimes difficult for us to determine why.

With the Civil War, why did God allow it to turn out the way it did? It is something that Robert E. Lee said to the people of the South after the loss at Gettysburg that perhaps gives us that answer. Was it for both reasons? General Lee said this to his troops, "Soldiers! we have sinned against Almighty God. We have forgotten His signal mercies, and have cultivated a revengeful, haughty, and boastful spirit. We have not remembered that the defenders of a just cause should be pure in His eyes...and we have relied too much on our own arms for the achievement of our independence. God is our only refuge and our strength. Let us humble ourselves before Him. Let us confess our many sins and beseech Him to give us a higher courage, a purer patriotism, and a more determined will; that He convert the hearts of our enemies; that He will hasten the time when war, with its sorrows and sufferings, shall cease, and that He will give us a name and a place among the nations of the earth."

God expects much more from his people whom he has called for a purpose. When He does that, He expects more from them than He does other peoples. In Luke 12 we read this, "But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?" (Luke 12:48-49).

Jesus is talking about a cultural war and it had already started when He was on earth with us. Every war that has been fought since His Advent can be classified as a cultural war because it has always been the same people even then extant on the earth who perpetrated it.

Now, why was what General Robert E. Lee said so important to us today as we enter into another phase of that cultural war? General Lee was a devout Christian man. He said that his troops had forgotten God's mercies, they had cultivated a revengeful, haughty, and boastful spirit. They had not remembered that those who are fighting for a just cause must be pure in God's eyes. They had relied too much on their own strength and then he said, "God is our only refuge and our strength." General Lee was referring to Psalm 91.

We will keep on making the same mistakes all over again unless we pay attention to what General Lee had to say We seem to relish a haughty spirit. None of us see the same thing in the same way. Just like a beautiful oil painting is appreciated in a different way by each person viewing it, we must try to understand and appreciate everyone's contribution to this great cause. God will sort it out for us if we will just let Him.

We are grateful for the works of Hans Schmidt, POB 11124, Pensacola Florida 32524 for publishing his recently written book End Times/End Games. It is a book worth reading and it describes some of the aspects of this cultural war now raging. The price is $19.95 plus $3.50 S&H. He refers to the works of the late Walter White of Western Front. Mr. Schmidt refers to Walter as one of the most indefatigable fighters for the European culture. We agree with that assessment. We here at Christian Crusade for Truth have some of Walter's library, now added to ours. We are grateful.

Walter White found an old document, written by Major Osman Bey, written in 1878 but removed from circulation because of its content (again, a sign of cultural war). A quote from Major Osman's document follows:

"In obedience to an unchangeable law of nature, men strive to ameliorate their own condition at the expense of others. From this fact originated the many jealous contests and wars wherein men seek to excel each other.

"The manner in which these wars and contests are conducted is determined by principles that differ from each other according to the geographical position, the social and political condition, and the spirit peculiar to the contesting people. These principles, that thus form the basis of the work of conquest, are of three kinds: 1. The Principle of Physical Force; 2. The Theocratic Principle, whereby the masses are subjected to a religious faith; 3. The Principle of Material Interests, which enslaves people by financial oppression.

"The first two kinds of principles we assume to be well-known, for the history of Rome and Greece in ancient times, as well as the history of the Papacy and of Russia and Germany in modern times, is simply the illustration of the application of those principles.

"They are the causes that gave rise to those Powers and founded their predominance by physical and moral means. But the conquests of the third category, that is, those which result from the application of the principle of material interests, show us a peculiar and altogether novel phenomenon. In this case material interests take the place of physical force, or religious faith, and become the basis as well as the moving springs of the work of conquest. But the principle of material interests is in itself much more powerful than the other principles, as matters are arranged in this world now, no one being able to escape from its power. For a principle, which is based on the necessity of existence, on the element of life, is a universal principle, to which we all are subject at present. Our material interests form a central point toward which all human inclinations and desires trend; and hence their possession is equivalent to universal dominion.

"A conquest founded on the principle of material interests is not a victory of strength over weakness, nor a victory of knowledge over ignorance, but a victory of cunning over confidence and carelessness. Its endeavor is to obtain control of all the means of existence, and absorb all the wealth of nations; thereby subjecting them, in the end, to the arbitrary rule of the conqueror.

"It is our purpose in this essay to explain the mode and manner of this conquest, and to expose clearly and strikingly the rise of the Jewish power, and its wonderful development in our days. The Jewish people has, in all probability, been the first one to discover that secret power: the principle of material interests." End of quotes by Major Osman.

That principle was learned by the Phariseical Talmudists while in Babylon 600 years before Christ. We have written and spoken on this phenomena before. So, from that, we now can understand the origin of the greatest of all cultural wars in known history. It is now coming to a climax.

We can summarize our current positions in this ongoing cultural war and it has been raging, off and on, for two millennia. The third millennium is about to start and it would appear that every major religion, occult organization including astrologers, Masons, New Agers, along with most political organizations including the United Nations, seem to believe that the year 2000 is most important to their plans.

We hear constantly about the Y2K problem. The evidence is overwhelming which indicates that Y2K is a contrived problem.

We know that the problems of the Mideast are rapidly coming to a head such that the year 2000 is a year to be alert. Saddam Hussein's Iraq appears to be the catalyst. We unnecessarily bombed Iraq several times for contrived reasons. Hussein's program was brilliantly conducted when he repeatedly refused UN weapon inspectors admission (under the control of world Zionism). Then, just before the holy month of Ramadan he again refused the UN inspectors. We responded with bombs, again under Zionist command, and that opened Pandora's Box. The entire Arab Mideast, including Iran, has united for war! Syria's President Hafez al-Assad and Hussein have held secret summit meetings. Russia, Turkey, China, and all of the Muslim nations are involved. Osama bin Laden, along with other Mideastern organizations, are preparing for biological attacks on the "Great Satan," the United States and England. That is the reason why we see on TV the practice alerts in most large cities to counter this threat.

The Arab nations, and Muslim peoples in general, have a right to their culture. The peoples of the Bosnia region have a right to their culture as do the African, Chinese, Japanese, Indian and all other ethnic groups. However, all of these other ethnic groups must realize that the European culture, of which the United States is a part, must be allowed to keep its culture intact.

We have the plethora of treaties such as GATT, NAFTA, Border XXI, The Rio Summit and other Environmental treaties. We also have the multitude of Executive Orders which "end run" the Congress, not that they are concerned. All of these are under the "principle of material interests."

Judeo-Christianity, with that name being an oxymoron, is a part of the program. We have Evangelicals trying to order God to bring Armageddon on in the year 2000! The concept of Pre-Millennialism is a brainchild of Zionism and it has been said that there are more Christian Zionists than there are Jewish! It would appear that the old slogan "If you can't beat them, join them!" appears to be the working motto. It has been our experience that one needs to be the most careful when working with entities flying the modern "Christian flag!"

We know that the United Nations intends to become emplaced as the world's political body during the year 2000. It is no secret that the UN's intent is to destroy all of these cultures and create what they call "The UN brown man," of which they have a statue at the UN building in New York.

Having written all that, what should we do? First and forever, we should take seriously what General Lee said to his troops after Gettysburg. We had better read, and reread, the 91st Psalm.

Paul said in Ephesians 6:12 "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." That confirms that this cultural war was already in progress when Paul wrote that. Paul was talking about the Talmudic Phariseeical Jews and their cultural war on Christianity. That war has continued, unabated, since then.

That cultural war, a "spiritual war," is between Christianity and Talmudic Phariseeism and it is a war unto the death of one or the other. How can anybody teach that "they are simply misguided and we must convert them!" That is impossible and Judeo-Christianity had better learn that lesson and learn it fast. We need solidarity on this issue and until we get it we will never understand what Paul meant when he said, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." (Gal 5:1). Luke 1:68-72 tells us who we were to be saved from and it was the Talmudic Pharisees then and it is the Talmudic Pharisees now.

Just how important is the fact that we must obtain solidarity on the issue of who is the enemy of our culture? God tells us in Revelations that this "One World," Phariseeical system will lose. He also forwarns those who are still telling us that they are simply misguided and we must try to convert them. In Chapter 18, verse 4, John writes, "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." That is God's response to those who have joined in with "The Principle of Material Interests" which Major Osman describes in his booklet.
